(BULLETIN)

(International News Service)
BLOOMSBURG, Pa., Oct. 11.—Two men were killed and two were injured, one critically, near here today when the driver of the automobile in which they were returning home fell asleep and the car swerved off the road, crashing into a telephone pole.

The Dead
Lee Derr, 27, and Nevin Schell, 34, both of Bloomsburg.
Warren Dreisbach, 25, suffered injuries to his right leg which may necessitate its amputation. Hope Rupert, 25, driver of the car, suffered internal injuries, cuts and bruises.

Rupert, at the Bloomsburg hospital, said he had fallen asleep and awakened when the car swerved. A short time later, as the party neared Bloomsburg, he fell asleep again and the car crashed off the road.

PA NEW OBSERVES

A word to the women—there are so many scores of reasons why you should call up the Y. W. C. A. today and enter your registration to join a gym class for 14 weeks. Classes start next week, women, and you really should join. Fun, and exercise, will make you youthful, supple and healthful.

Straw flowers seem to be the thing now. Pa New doesn't mean imitation flowers, but real straw flowers. Have you seen them?

West Washington street extension, from the end of the pavement on to be pretty rough, and Pa New warns motorists not to drive too fast over the road, or they may leave some car parts behind.

We see at a glance:
That corner drinking fountain down again, getting much use any more. Seen well dismantled for the winter.

That Lawrence county's doctors are planning a merry get-together for Thursday, October 16, at the nurses' home of the Jameson hospital.

That yesterday's edition of George Washington junior high school's student-edited paper, "The Junior Citizen," is just as newsy and well made up as ever. "The Ben Franklin" is another snappy school paper.

That the Y. M. C. A. is bringing probably the most outstanding leaders in boys' work here to discuss community problems with leaders here next Tuesday night.

Traffic on Friday was rather congested at the corner of East Washington street and Croton avenue, while some workmen of the track department of the power company did some repair work. One of the men was using a drill and wore a

New Wilmington Girl Is Seriously Burned

Ann, the twenty month old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Elmer E. Sharp, of 124 South Market street, New Wilmington, is in the Jameson Memorial hospital, suffering from serious burns sustained about 4:30 o'clock Friday afternoon, while playing in the rear yard of her home.

At the hospital this morning, it was stated that the little girl passed a fairly comfortable night and that her recovery was indicated, provided no unforeseen complications arose. She is suffering from serious burns on the back of the neck and on the hip.

She was playing in the rear yard at her home with her brother, Billy, aged 3 years, when the screams of the latter drew the attention of the father, who on rushing out found the clothing of his little daughter all ablaze.

With quick presence of mind, he grabbed a piece of burlap that had been hung out on a line to dry, and wrapped it about his little girl, smothering out the flames. She was immediately rushed to the local hospital and given every possible attention.
There was no fire of any kind in the yard with which the little girl could have come in contact and it is thought that possibly, she had secured a match in some unknown manner and that while attempting to light it, had set her clothing on fire. Her little brother, who was terribly frightened, has so far been unable to give any explanation of the accident.

Pinchot Despite Rumors

By LEO DOLAN

International News Service Staff

PITTSBURGH, Oct. 11.—Reports from Philadelphia that sentiment against Gifford Pinchot was crystallizing in the regular Republican ranks and indications that the revolt might spread in earnest to Western Pennsylvania were somewhat nullified today in the wake of a huge Republican organization rally held here last night.
The keynote of the meeting was sounded by Joseph G. Armstrong, chairman of the Allegheny county commissioners, who brought the gathering to its collective feet roaring its approval when he cried:

“A Democrat by any other name is still a Democrat and no red-blooded Republican will vote for any one whether they call themselves liberals, libertys or anything else.”

Armstrong called upon all Republicans to support the state ticket “from top to bottom.” Almost to a man, leaders in the assembly pledged their allegiance to the ticket. Included were such outstanding Western Pennsylvania leaders as Mayor Charles H. Kline, District Attorney Andrew T. Park, Judge James B. Drew, State Senator James J. Coyne, Congressman P. J. Sullivan, State Senator William D. Mansfield and others almost as well known.

Another Fake Alarm Arouses Fire Chief; Firemen Endangered

Race Through Business District During Traffic Height To Supposed Fire

The fourth false box alarm received by the fire department in the last two weeks Friday evening endangered lives of firemen from Central station who made the run thru the business district.
The call was received from the box at Falls and East streets at 7:20 p. m. Friday when evening traffic was at its height. A truck from Central raced east on Washington street and turned into East street to reach the scene of the supposed fire.

No. 2 station also responded.
Fire Chief Lynn and Chief of Police C. C. Horner arrived to help the firemen hunt for the sender of the alarm.
Chief Lynn said:
“Just another false alarm. I am afraid that this is going to keep up until some person is seriously hurt or a piece of apparatus is smashed up.”

Among the most loyal supporters of the New Castle Community Chest are the city and county employees, most departments of the city and county government having subscribed 100 per cent in the 1930 Community Chest campaign.

Several other business organizations have reported 100 per cent contributions to the Community Chest this year.

Those of which a record has been made to date include the garbage, sewer, municipal golf, electrical, police, public affairs and public property departments of the city of New Castle, the register and recorder's office of the county, the Prudential Life Insurance company and Reynolds, Thorn & Co.

It is possible that other organizations in the city have subscribed 100 per cent and these will be listed later.
Those in charge of the Community Chest regard it as unfortunate that many other organizations which could easily be 100 per cent, are not taking the interest that they should. Many of these are dependent upon

COMMITTEEMAN FROM DELAWARE

(International News Service)

WILMINGTON, Del., Oct. 11.—Josiah Marvel, aged 64, Democratic National committeeman from Delaware and president of the American Bar association died suddenly at his home “Nantocook” near here early today. Death was caused by a heart attack.

Marvel was stricken suddenly and succumbed before physicians could attend him. He had been in apparent good health for some time and only yesterday was expected to visit this city to attend the hearings of Senator Nye's senate probe of the recent primary election of Delaware.

He was defeated by Thomas F. Bayard for the senatorial nomination of his party after a hot fight. Generally recognized as a “dry” Marvel lost out when the delegates were called upon to support Bayard, an avowed wet.

He was a native of Sussex county and is survived by his widow and eight children.

WILL ROGERS says:

(Special To The News)

BEVERLY HILLS, Cal., Oct. 11.—Mr. Coolidge said yesterday: “Some are supporting candidates because they are good fellows. It is vain to elect office seekers who smile. You can't run the government on entertainment.”

That's harsh words, Calvin.

Evidently Mr. Coolidge knows of some Democrats who are good fellows running against some sad Republicans, and this is his sly way of asking you to vote for a sad-faced Republican, for any man that an smile nowadays must be a Democrat, or a half wit, or perhaps both.

Being serious, or being a good fellow, has got nothing to do with running the country. If the breaks are with you, you could be a laughing hyena and still have a great administration.

Yours,

Will Rogers

CROYDON, Eng., Oct. 11.—Completing their interrupted flight across the Atlantic Captain J. Errol Boyd and Lieut. Harry P. Connor landed at Croydon Aerodrome in the veteran monoplane Columbia at 3:55 p. m. today (10:55 a. m. Eastern Standard time).

The fliers had made fast time in the flight from Trescow, in the Scilly Islands, where they were forced down by a clogged gasoline feed-pipe yesterday, approximately 24 hours after taking off from Harbor Grace, Newfoundland. They left Trescow at 1:01 o'clock this afternoon (8:01 a. m. Eastern Standard time).

Plane In Good Shape
The tried and true old plane showed few traces of its battles with winds of hurricane force on the trip across the Atlantic, the second it had made in its career.

Charles A. Levine, who with Clarence Chamberlin flew in the Columbia on its first Atlantic flight from New York to Esleben, Germany, some years ago, was on hand to welcome the fliers when they put their plane down on this air field.

Levine was at the head of the cheering crowd which rushed toward the plane when Boyd brought it to a stop. He clambered up on the wing of his “baby,” as he calls the Columbia, and waved Boyd's hand. “There's nothing to be excited about,” said the pilot “just tell them we're here.”

LONDON, Oct. 11.—Amidst a majestic stillness, broken only by the rumble of wheels and the measured beat of a dirge, the most solemn funeral ever witnessed in London's historic streets passed slowly today between crowds massed from ancient Westminster hall to Euston railroad station.

Surrounded by royal air force squadrons as well as army and navy detachments, the heavily draped caskets containing the bodies of the skyriders who perished a week ago in the crash of the Dirigible B-101 on a rain-soaked hill in France were taken upon 48 army wagons and placed upon the station for shipment to Cardington. The funeral train left the terminal at 12:30 noon (7:30 New York time).

Scores of spectators, among them many women, collapsed in the terrific crush and pressing exerted by the huge throng in an effort to glimpse the procession. Scotland Yard and other public buildings were converted into temporary first-aid stations as ambulances made vain attempts to cope with the situation.

TELEPHONED HOME;
THEN DISAPPEARED

(International News Service)

CHICAGO, Oct. 11.—The airplane in which Charles V. Bob, 42, New York banker, flew to Chicago Wednesday was located today at the municipal airport, but no trace of the missing man could be found.

Bob arrived at the Blackstone Hotel about eight a. m. Wednesday, and checked out at one p. m. the same day. He left no forwarding address.

His plane, a Bellanca, piloted by Col. Dean Lamb, British air ace, was stored at the Bluebird air hangar Wednesday morning, where it was checked in from Cleveland. Orders were left to have the ship rigged and in readiness for departure at 10 a. m. yesterday. No one called for the plane.

Officials of the airport were at a loss to account for the owner of the plane. He left no Chicago address and they had received no word from him or his pilot.

In the meantime the Chicago police took up the search for the banker. It is believed that he carried a large sum of money with him and it is feared that he may have met with foul play.

Thursday Bob telephoned his home in New York, saying that he and his pilot expected to fly from Chicago that night. That was the last word heard from him.

Boys Should Not Stage “Rough Stuff”

Mayor William Gillespie today said that boys apprehended while committing pre-Halloween depredations will be fined.

“Boys are commencing to do things to the annoyance of other persons, such as scraping windows, leaving air out of tires and other undesired acts. I do not believe they should do this and persons caught will be fined,” Mayor Gillespie said.

(BULLETIN)

(International News Service)

WASHINGTON, Oct. 11.—The Navy Department today ordered the U. S. Cruiser Pensacola to proceed from Hampton Roads, Va., to Guantanamo Bay, Cuba, to remain in readiness in event the prevailing revolution against the government in Brazil endangers the lives of American residents there.

Secretary Adams explained that although reports from Brazil have stated no Americans have suffered injury so far, the dispatch of the cruiser “is in keeping with the Navy's policy in protecting American citizens.”

By stationing the Pensacola in Cuban waters it will reduce its steaming time to Brazil by three days.

Several Accidents Reported To Police

Damage Is Done To Several Cars Figuring In Collisions
On Streets

Edward W. Sontum, R. D. No. 2, reported Friday that he was driving the truck of R. W. Wilson of Ridge street, east on East Washington street and making a left hand turn onto Croton avenue. He was compelled to pass between two cars parked, one on each side of Croton avenue and hit and damaged one of the cars.

J. F. Lamielli of 722 Oak street, reported that he was going west on Mahoning avenue and making a right turn onto McKinley street, as Joe Palmer of 216 Montgomery avenue, going west on Car Works Alley, made a left turn onto McKinley street and the machines came together. Some damage was done.

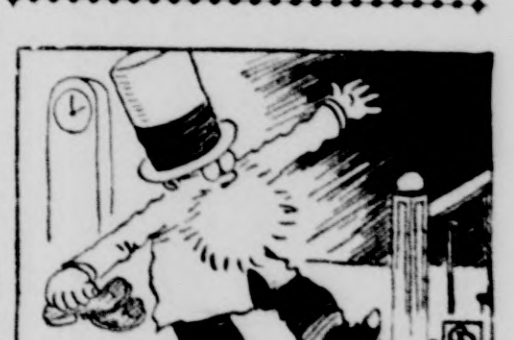

Mrs. L. W. Schetrom of 233 Scott street, reported that he was enroute south on South Ray street at East Main street, as Ralph Larzo going in the same direction to pass his car and hit and damaged it.

William C. Badger, reported that he was driving the truck of the Teets Baking company north on South Mill street at Croton avenue, when his car was in a collision with that of Freda Love, 1009 North Mercer street. Both machines were damaged.

Mrs. Harold Jones, of Newell avenue, returned home today after a few days visit with Mr. and Mrs. James Prindle at Warren, Ohio, who accompanied her home and will spend the week-end with the latter's parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Jones, this city.

Buhl Executors Gain Victory

Executors Of Estate Of Frank H. Buhl Will Be Awarded $127,- 518.77

WAS COLLECTED AS FEDERAL STATE TAX

(International News Service)
PITTSBURGH, Oct. 11.—Victory rested today with the executors of the estate of the late Frank H. Buhl, of Sharon, Iron Manufacturer and noted philanthropist with the rendering of an opinion by Judge F. P.
Schoonmaker in federal court here that the executors were entitled to recover $127,518.77, collected by the government as federal estate taxes on the endowment made to the Buhl club of Sharon by the late manufacturer.

The endowment of approximately one million dollars, had been bequeathed to the trustees of the Buhl club, for use exclusively for charitable, literary and educational purposes.

Federal taxes to the amount of $127,518.77 had been paid under protest and an action to recover from the government was brought against C. G. Lewellyn, former collector of internal revenue, during whose regime the collection was made.

Will Get Interest
In addition to the favorable opinion, the court also held that the executors of the Buhl estate were entitled to recover interest from June 13, 1931, on the protested taxes collected.

In the opinion holding the endowment to the Buhl club not subject to the tax imposed, the court held the endowment was a charitable one for general public use, beneficial to the citizens of Sharon and vicinity.

It was pointed out by the court that the gift was an unselfish act one animated by love for the citizens of the community in which he lived and had been turned over to trustees of the club which activities were exclusively charitable, literary and educational.

Compensation For Employee Stands

Yoder Morris Company Must Pay Compensation Under Court's Opinion

In an opinion handed down by Judge R. Lawrence Hildebrand this morning in the case of Andrew E.
Thompson against the Yoder Morris company the appeal is dismissed.
This is a case in which Thompson was injured while installing an electric door opener at the plant of the Lawrence Auto company. He was employed by the Yoder Morris company and was awarded compensation under the workmen's compensation act. Decision of the reference board, and the Yoder Morris company appealed. The decision means that Thompson will get his compensation.

In the case of Ernest H. Scrazzo, trading as the State Auto Sales company, against the New Castle Fireworks company and Arthur Rozzi, petition to strike out a judgment is granted.

In the case of the Real Estate Exchange, use of F. A. Myers against P. O. McAnis, to open a judgment amounting to $95, petition is refused.

uation. All available policemen were utilized to maintain order.

Launched Year Ago
Exactly a year from the day that the ill-starred R-101 was launched with gala ceremonies at Cardington, London defied its fate in reverence to the fallen airship's crew as the long line of coffins was placed into the special coaches one by one. A common grave within the shadow of the great British dirigible base awaits them, with interment scheduled for late this afternoon.

Behind the tragic line of caskets marched a phalanx of British government officials, offering a spectacle to the tens of thousands who were packed together along the funeral route such as is rarely witnessed here. Members of the cabinet, headed by Premier J. Ramsay MacDonald, preceded the impressive governmental body.

Behind the cabinet followed all the premiers of the British empire.
Hundreds of administration, army, navy and municipal officials followed after them in solid ranks.

Thomas F. O'Brien, constable from the office of Alderman W. E.
Marshall is back in the city follow-

You're the JUDGE

Between the Hinks Stove Works and a certain customer at a distant place two suits were pending, both of them started by the stove works.
But just before the suits came to trial the Hinks company and the customer entered into an agreement whereby the Hinks company promised to drop both suits if the customer would make a certain payment to cover the cost already incurred and if the customer also repaid some certain other amounts involved in the same transaction.

The Hinks company kept its word and dropped the suits, but the customer made no payment, and when asked about it, replied that the agreement was no contract because it lacked a consideration. The Hinks company therefore sued.

queer sort of protecting mask—and needless to say, he attracted much attention.

Well, the children of the township schools of Lawrence county will return to their duties on Monday morning, after having had a week of vacation, while their teachers attended the 77th annual institute at Union high.

Many high schools of the county have included in the faculty, a dean of girls, who represents officially the girls of the school, co-ordinating their various academic and social interests, acting as their spokesman and leader, supplying a constant factor in the changing student group, and serving as counselor to groups and individuals. She is the general personnel officer for girls, and Pa New believes that it is one of the most important jobs in a school.

Are you remembering the dates
when the Jameson Memorial hospital aid society will collect food donations—October 31 and November 7? Will you help make this a success? Donations are for the Jameson hospital.

Better start now to think of a cute idea for your Halloween suit.
Pa New heard a kiddie say the other day that he was going to be a fish this year!

November 1 has a real significance to the hunters of Lawrence county.
Can you guess why?

Is there anything more disgusting than to walk down town and pass a restaurant that his its kitchen ventilator blowing the foul air out on the main street? Why can't the air be released in a back alley—or from the roof tops?
Pa New doesn't care to smell the odor of cooking meat, boiling applesauce, frying eggs and hamburger steak when walking down Washington street. Oo!

Don't you think the library building looks nice?

Stolen Car Found Badly Damaged

Automobile of Ed Connery, 331

by the owner on Mahoning avenue, according to the report at the po-was broken, a tire badly damaged and both running boards badly damaged.

STORY HOUR WILL START NEXT MONTH

Children's story hour at the New pointed out, and it is believed fair that each should subscribe, regard-all of these agencies be 100 per cent in support of this worthy cause.

Churches to Aid.
Close check is being kept on the subscriptions of all organizations and individuals, and it is hoped that many more will be 100 per cent at the next report meeting during the campaign, which will be held at the Y. W. C. A. on Tuesday, October 14.

The churches of the city are cooperating in an excellent manner, and the loose collection from most of the Sunday schools and churches to be taken on Sunday, October 12 will be given to the Community Chest.

The Women's club and many constituent clubs of the Federation of Women's clubs are doing excellent work in visiting the homes of the city and thereby reaching many who have not been given an opportunity to subscribe.

Women Assist.
Many of these outstanding women of New Castle will call many of those who have not subscribed as yet, on Monday morning by telephone from the Community Chest headquarters, kindly asking that they give in order that the Community Chest may be put over the top without further delay. Those who have graciously agreed to perform this valuable service are:

Mesdames John Meegan, Charles
Young, A. B. Fankhous, Earl Douglas, Howard Kirk, William Wheeler, Riley Ballard, K. G. Walter, W. W. Smith, C. W. Duff, Pauline Gilkey Gregg, C. J. Williamson, C. E. Trainor, G. R. Balph, J. C.
Foster, Nellie B. Brooks, J. H. Frew and Misses Elizabeth Sterrett and Martha Bigley.

A number of others will assist them in this work, the list of volunteers having not been completed as yet.

Those who have not already contributed to the Community Chest fund who have not been solicited or given an opportunity to subscribe and would like to give, are requested to call 2660 or the Community Chest headquarters, phones 6120, 6121, 6122, 6123, making their wish known and they will be seen immediately by a representative of the Community Chest.

With all of these various agencies cooperating, it is hopefully expected that the chest will go over the top at the report meeting on Tuesday.

Men's Class Enjoys Social Evening

Men Of Third United Presbyterian Church Gather For Get-Together Meeting

The Men's Bible class of the Third U. P. church gathered in the church parlors Friday evening for their regular monthly meeting and entertainment.

At the business session it was announced that the average attendance of the class had been 97 during the summer months, which was a most gratifying report to the men.
Rev. G. M. Landis, pastor of the First Baptist church, was the speaker of the evening and an interesting address was given on "The Book We Study."

John Cartwright gave a number of declamations which were received enthusiastically by the men after which a group of Honolulu players gave a concert of Hawaiian music, which was pleasing to the ear.

To close a perfect evening the refreshment committee then took charge and the entertainment of the evening was relished by the men.
Those serving were H. J. Book, John

STAR LORE THE OCTOBER ECLIPSE OF THE SUN

By Arthur Dev, Carpenter

A total eclipse of the sun will take place October 21st, near the International Date Line, and south of the equator 15 degrees 35 minutes.
The only land from which the view may be had to advantage is the Island of Niuafoou. Another island also lies in the path of totality—Nurakia, in the Ellice group (see your atlas)—but this group has many disadvantages, and the eclipse lasts but 55 seconds as compared with 83 seconds at Niuafoou. At this writing Captain C. S. Freeman, superintendent of the United States naval observatory is heading an eclipse expedition from America, and Dr. C. E. Adams, the government astronomer of New Zealand, is heading one from there.

ALLEGHENY COUNTY REPUBLICANS WILL SUPPORT PINCHOT

Gifford Pinchot in the "tall forest-er's" quest for the governorship, Armstrong took occasion to pay tribute to Pinchot's political sagacity.
"I personally was against Pin-chot," Armstrong said, "I went in and did more against him than anybody can do for the other man in this fight. Pinchot outstepped us like he did eight years ago."
"We took advantage of every move on the political checker-board—but he beat us. Now we must be red-blinded sports and not allow ourselves to be led under the banner of the Democratic party that only polled 56,000 votes against our 103,- 000."

Another of the Francis Skunk Brown supporters in the primaries enrolled behind the Pinchot standard when Judge James B. Drew, superior court nominee, declared:
"I was one of the chief mourners when my friend Francis Skunk Brown was defeated. He would have made perhaps the greatest governor Pennsylvania ever had. But we fought out our battles in the primaries. Pinchot won and we should do as we always have done—line up for the nominees."

Kline Speaks
Mayor Kline, another opponent of Pinchot in the primaries, demanded to know "why the change of heart in Philadelphia?"

He answered his own question with the assertion that "maybe it because Pinchot would build every bridge they want and pave every street in South Philadelphia."

Senator Mansfield declared that all the nominees are satisfactory to everybody, including the Independents, and termed the present campaign "the softest fight the organization has ever had."

Although reports of defections from the regular Republican rank in Philadelphia continued to reach political leaders here, these leaders were brimful of confidence that Pin-chot would defeat John M. Hemphill, Democratic Liberal candidate, in the November showdown.

Seek Man Charged With Horse Theft

Railroad Police Hot On Trail Of Montana Rancher Who Flees District

Armed with a federal warrant authorizing the arrest of E. Larkin, Black Hill, Montana, rancher, Lieutenant of Police James J. Micus of the Indiana Harbor Belt railroad at Chicago left here today for Washington, Pa., where he hopes to apprehend the westerner, charged with stealing a valuable horse from a car of the Indiana road this week.

Larkin, who shipped a carload of horses to Volant for a sale early this week, is charged with adding a three-year-old mare to his cargo during the loading and unloading at Chicago. On a visit here the owner of the horse identified it as one sold to a Mt. Jackson farmer at the Volant sale a few days ago.

Working with Pennsylvania railroad officers, Lieutenant Micus had a warrant sworn out in Pittsburgh for his arrest yesterday afternoon.
They rushed to Volant to seize Larkin only to learn he had left for Washington just an hour before.

A man named Baker, the owner of the stolen horse came here from Omaha, Neb., to assist in the case.

Stolen Auto Found On Melrose Avenue

Had Been Stripped Of Many Valuable Parts By Thieves Taking It

A call was received last night from the Melrose avenue district asking if an automobile had been reported stolen. The report was to the effect that a Ford coupe bearing Pennsylvania license N-3053 had been abandoned there by two men who had left after apparently stripping the machine.

Lieutenant Hiller, Detective John Young and Officer M. J. Young hurried to the scene and found that the machine had been stripped of its battery, headlights and spare tire.

A short time later, a call was received from H. J. Hilliard of West Clayton street telling of the theft of his machine while he was at the football game. This proved to be his machine and it was turned over to him.

"Citizen" Appears Off School Press

Faculty advisors for the publication are Miss Rose M. Uhl, Miss E. Verna Wilfert and George R. Duell.

Average Life Of Book At Library Is Short

How many times may a public library book be circulated before it is discarded from the shelves?

That depends upon how well the book is bound in the first place and how it is used by the borrower, according to Miss Alice Joyce, children's librarian, of the New Castle library.

Books in the adult department are circulated a great many more times than books from the juvenile department before they must be discarded. The most popular books of both departments of course wear out quite rapidly.

Miss Joyce says that some of the juvenile department are unfit for further use after being borrowed 35 times, and sometimes less than that. Other books will go out 120 or 130 times, and still be in good condition. Many times the cards on file show that books have been out 70 times.

Since the starting of the Blue Star club in the juvenile department, the books have been kept in surprisingly good condition. A blue star is awarded to the youngsters who keep their books the cleanest.

Adult borrowers too, are often careless with their books, and as a result the books necessitate being discarded long before they should. Sometimes books are returned with bites out of the covers, indicating that the borrower has a very playful pup. Often pages are torn, pencil marks, underlying quotations, sticky fingerprints on the pages and ink spilled on the covers.

There's always a bright side. A few more years like this and it won't be so hard to stick to a diet.

ARMSTRONG-CLEMENT WEDDING PERFORMED

A wedding of interest was performed Thursday, October 9, at Portersville, when Miss Naomi Armstrong, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Randall Armstrong of Reynolds street, this city, became the bride of William R. Clement, son of Mrs. W. R. Clement of the Ellwood-New Castle road.

The ceremony was read by the Rev. Frederick C. Patterson, pastor of the United Presbyterian church of Portersville, at 6:15 o'clock and officiated with the ring service. Mr. and Mrs. Melvin Fioan were the only attendants of the young couple who entertained at the wedding dinner in their home following the reading of the nuptials.

Mrs. Clement has been an employee of the Bell Telephone office of this city, and Mr. Clement who is well and favorably known young man, is in the florist business.

They will reside with the groom's parents on the Ellwood road.

JEWISH WOMEN WILL ATTEND COUNCIL

Among those who will represent the local Council section at the tenth annual meeting of the conference of Pennsylvania section, National Council of Jewish Women, will be held in Pittsburgh, October 19-21, are Mrs. B. Kline, president of the local council, and Mrs. Joseph Ehrlich, who will act as delegate.

The convention, which will bring together members of the thirty-nine Pennsylvania sections of the national organization, will have headquarters at the Hotel Schenley. The National Council of Jewish Women is founded on the platform of doing work along religious, educational, philanthropic and civic lines, and it will be the practical execution of these problems that will confront the business sessions of the convention. Mrs. Alfred Rosenstein, of Philadelphia, president of the conference of Pennsylvania Sections, N. C. J. W. will preside at all sessions.

Mrs. B. Kline will attend the president's round table and supper, given by Mrs. Leo L. Half, president of the Pittsburgh Section, which will precede the convention, on Sunday evening, October 19. The opening session, immediately following the supper, will be held at the Y. M. C. W. H. A. building. As a feature of this meeting a playlet, "The Unknown Soldier Speaks," a fiery denunciation of war embodying Council's peace policies, will be presented by the "Y" players.

Mrs. Alfred M. Oppenheimer of Pittsburgh is in charge of arrangements for the convention and Mrs. Chester G. Pandman, vice president of the conference of Pennsylvania sections, is program chairman.

Mrs. Marus Feuchtwanger is vice president of the Northwest district and will also be in attendance.

At the meeting Thursday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Kline, plans for the gathering of fruits and jellies for the Jameson Memorial hospital were arranged and all goods may be left at Mrs. Kline's home 406 East Wallace avenue.

Mrs. Marcus Feuchtwanger was appointed chairman of arrangements for the Thanksgiving ball.

O. E. S. OFFICERS WILL BE HONORED

Mrs. George Weddell, Mrs. Philip H. Bridenbaugh, and Mrs. Charles E. Allen will be joint hostesses at a dinner party to be given at the Field Club, Wednesday evening, October 15, in honor of Mrs. Sumner Rowland, worthy matron of Shephard Chapter No. 333, O. E. S. and Mrs. Charles H. Young, district deputy grand master of this district.

The officers and past matrons of the chapter will also be guests on the occasion.

Tourists Reach Coast.

By postal card comes word to the effect that Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Froom of Youngstown and Mrs. Frederick Burrows and Mrs. Irene Nash of Neshannock avenue, who recently left the city by motor to vacation in California until spring have arrived at their destination safely.

Writing to Mr. Burrows from Wilcox, Ariz., Mrs. Burrows explained they had covered 350 miles that particular day and had traveled through three different states, Texas, New Mexico and Arizona.

Card Party

The Daughters of America entertained their members and friends Friday evening with a card party at which time euchre and 500 were played. At the conclusion of play prizes were awarded C. A. Fry, Mrs. Belle Hopwood, Harold Shaffer and Mrs. Louise Daniels for high scores. Refreshments of an appetizing nature were served by Mrs. Edna Brady, Mrs. Belle Knowles, and Mrs. Viola Evans and the members will again entertain October 24.

LUNCHEON FEATURES GIRLS CLUB MEETING

Mrs. Sam McGoun was a pleasing hostess Friday afternoon when she extended hospitality to the Girls Club at their regular meeting. A one o'clock luncheon featured the gathering, with a full attendance of the members and two special guests, Mrs. Harry Euwer of California and Mrs. Charles Crawford of Washington, D. C., participating. After an elaborate menu had been served at the prettily decorated tables, the hours were spent informally.

Mrs. Euwer is visiting at the home of Mrs. Lee Gordon of North Mercer street, and Mrs. Crawford is the house guest of Miss Carrie Crawford of North Jefferson street.

The Girls' Club will assemble at the Jameson Memorial hospital Wednesday morning from 9 until 12 o'clock when they will see on articles for the institution.

CLUB MEMBERS PLAN FOR MASQUERADE

Mrs. Francis Drake of Richelieu avenue entertained at the regular meeting of the O. F. B. club in her home Friday, having as a special guest Mrs. Jack Carr.

Radio music and fancywork whiled away the leisure hours, and at a suitable time the hostess served a dainty lunch, assisted by Mrs. Homer Brown. As an added feature, the Masters Billy Brown and George Drake entertained with readings and songs that were well received. The exchange of gifts followed.

It was decided during the business meeting that the members will entertain at a Halloween party at the home of Mrs. Homer Brown, Mulberry street, on October 21, which will be the date of the next regular gathering.

METROPOLITAN STAR RETURNS TO NEW YORK

Maram Charlotte Griffith Ryan, noted Metropolitan singer, has returned to New York City for the winter season which will open in one week, after having visited her mother, Mrs. Mae C. Griffith who resides with Mrs. James H. Eagan on Croton avenue. Madam Ryan spent the summer months in Europe.

Honor Son on Birthday

Honoring the fourth birthday of their little son, Murdock, Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Greer entertained a number of his friends in their home on Lutton street Friday, to celebrate the occasion. The early hours found the little ones enjoying themselves to the utmost with various games and stunts being indulged in, and at a suitable hour, they were served a lunch by Mrs. Greer assisted by Mrs. Eakin and Eleanor Richards. Halloween appointments were tastefully carried out in the decorations of the home and table.

Later in the evening, the parents of the young ones gathered when they participated in a card party, followed with the serving of refreshments by the hostess and her aides, Naomi June Kennedy and Helen Prosser gave a group of interesting readings that were quite amusing.

The names of the young folks present follow: Eula Jane Johnson, Bobby Reed, Carl Walters, George and Carl Walters, Naomi June Kennedy, Sara Elizabeth Reitz, Jack and Bobby Murdock, Jetty Jane and Charles Klingensmith, Virginia Eakin of this city, Dorothy Jean and Ralph Gilkey of Petersburg, O., and the honor guests who received a number of lovely gifts as a memento of the day.

S. O. S. Club

Members of the S. O. S. club met Friday evening at the home of Mrs. Mary Miller, Leasure avenue and spent the evening hours in kensington and general conversation. Mrs. N. C. Adams was a special guest.

At the close of the evening the hostess was assisted in serving a dainty lunch by her sister, Helen Moseley.

The next meeting of the club will be at the home of Mrs. Harvey Moltenkopf, Meyer avenue.

Merry Maidens

Miss Ann Jenkins of Adams street entertained the Merry Maidens at her home Thursday evening.

Bridge was the diversion of the evening, two tables being in play, and the high score prize was won by Miss Harriett Vickery. A color scheme of green and white was carried out in the appointments of the evening. At a seasonable hour, refreshments were served by the hostess, assisted by her mother, Mrs. Jesse Jenkins.

Husbands and families of the members will be guests.

REGULAR MEETING OF CLUB FRIDAY

Mrs. Earl Reeves of Garfield avenue was a charming hostess Friday evening when she entertained members of the B. B. B. Club, with all present. Bridge formed the chief diversion of the social hours, and at the conclusion of play, it was discovered that success awards were won by Mrs. Walter Gross and Mrs. Earl DeWolf. At a late hour, the hostess served a delicious repast, bringing a most delightful evening to a close.

In two weeks, Mrs. Earl DeWolf of North Jefferson street will entertain.

W. B. A. Card Party

The W. B. A. 98 held their regular meeting Friday evening in the I. O. O. F. Hall with Mrs. Lloyd Mitchell, past president of Pulaski, as a special guest.

Following the business meeting a card party was held. Prizes for high score went to Mrs. Mollie Finnegan, Mrs. G. L. Shoup, C. D. Wharton and Glen Fox and a special prize was won by Mrs. Margaret Hammond.

The prizes in Beano were won by Mrs. Albert Anderson, Mrs. C. D. Wharton and Mrs. Campbell.

The committee in charge Friday evening included Anna Patterson, Mrs. A. E. Hartman, Mrs. Ira Campbell, Mrs. W. J. Klingensmith, Mrs. Asa MacDonald, Mrs. Ethel Thomas and Mrs. Emma McKissick.

The next party in the series will be Tuesday, October 21 with Mrs. Ira Campbell and her committee in charge.

Attend Ellwood Lodge

The Ellwood City Orange Order of the L. L. O. K. entertained Friday evening in the Luxonburg Hall on Lawrence avenue, Friday evening at a Bridge, 500 and Bingo party, for which lovely favors were awarded to the winners. A Cake-Walk was a feature of the evening, with the favor being awarded to Mr. and Mrs. Baker of Ellwood. At a late hour, a lunch was served by the appointed committee.

Among the New Castle folks who were present were Mrs. Mae McConaghy and Mrs. Nora McCann of the L. L. O. I. No. 129 and Mr. and Mrs. E. B. Ray, Mrs. Charles Hicks and daughter Kathryn from the L. L. O. I. No. 24 Martha Washington.

Harvey Martin Class

Mrs. E. Snyder, Winter avenue, pleasantly entertained the members of the Harvey Martin class of the First Baptist church in her home Friday afternoon for the regular monthly meeting.

The devotional period was conducted by Mrs. N. M. Joseph after which a brief business session was held, the balance of the afternoon being given over to an informal social time. Mrs. F. L. Groves of Evans City was a special guest.

To close an enjoyable afternoon Mrs. Snyder, with Mrs. Frank Houk, Mrs. L. Hogue and Mrs. L. H. Schidemann, joint hostesses, served a dainty lunch to the twenty-three members present.

Announces Marriage

Mrs. E. Nelson announces the marriage of her daughter, Juliette, to Carl Benson, son of Charles Benson of Gardner.

The ceremony was performed at the parsonage of the Finnish Lutheran church on Thursday, October 9 at 10 o'clock with the Rev. Hanninen officiating.

The bride was attired in a gown of pink shell shifon with matching accessories, and wore a shoulder corsage of roses and valley-lilies. After the ceremony a wedding dinner was served at 7 o'clock where the places marked for 25 members of the immediate families. Appointments of pink and white were carried out in the menu.

Mr. and Mrs. Benson were the recipients of many gifts.

Engagement of Interest

Word has been received of the engagement of Miss Hester Sheehan daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Patrick Sheehan of Oil City, to Albert J. Powers, formerly of Titusville and now of Columbus, O.

The marriage will be an event of October 21 in St. Joseph's church on Pearl avenue, Oil City.

T. B. L. Club

The T. B. L. Club members were entertained at Lakewood by Mr. and Mrs. Clair Albion Friday, having a large number present. Dancing and music were enjoyed as the main diversions.

On October 23 the club will be the guests of Mr. and Mrs. E. N. Boyles at Lakewood pavilion.

Current Events '23

The Current Events of '23 will hold their regular meeting on Monday, October 13, at the home of Mrs. L. Pengratz on Croton avenue which will be a meeting of importance to all concerned. Mrs. Clinton Keagy will give a talk on "Art" that promises to be very interesting.

OPENING MEETING OF SOROSIS CLUB SUCCESS

The Sorosis Club members had a most successful meeting Friday afternoon when they gathered at the home of Mrs. Frank Woods on Sheridan avenue, who charmingly entertained with a one o'clock luncheon. Roll call was given in answer to with a humorous incident.

Covers were laid for 38, including Mrs. Roy Long's mother, Mrs. Wilson of Saltsburg and Miss Henrietta Woods, who were special guests of the occasion. Following the serving of a delicious menu, a group of the ladies present entertained with a "Playette" of educational value.

This event marked the first gathering of the fall season of the club, and matters concerning the winter work were discussed. The committee in charge, and to whom much credit is due for the complete success of the affair includes the following: Mrs. George Stone, Mrs. A. L. Thayer, Mrs. George White, Mrs. John Whitten, Mrs. Frank Woods, Mrs. D. B. Woolcock and Mrs. E. S. Crawford.

ELKS CLUB SCENE OF ENJOYABLE MEETING

Associates of the Gramoda Kensington had an enjoyable meeting Friday afternoon when they were entertained at the Elks Club as the guests of Mrs. W. G. Robinson. A sumptuous menu was served at one o'clock, with places being cleverly arranged for seven guests, the tables being an array of pastel hues. A general social time followed, with cards and chat formed the feature diversions.

On October 30, the club will be entertained at the Elks Club by Mrs. Robert Grooms.

Surprise Dinner

Mrs. A. T. Chamberlain, Sumner avenue, was agreeably surprised Friday evening when a group of friends, with baskets of deliciously prepared viands gathered at her home about dinner time and informed her they had come to help her celebrate her birthday. Getting over her surprise, she invited them in and they set a table, appointed it daintily with fall flowers and Halloween suggestions and served an elaborate menu. Mr. R. S. Cline, on behalf of the group, in a clever rhyme, presented Mrs. Chamberlain with a beautiful glass luncheon set.

Following dinner a number of invited guests came in and the evening was delightfully spent at bridge and 500 with prizes for high score going to Mrs. R. S. Cline and Sara Druschel.

At the conclusion of play at a late hour the hostess prepared and served a dainty repast and the guests departed for their homes after presenting Mrs. Chamberlain with a number of lovely gifts and wishing her many more such joyous occasions.

House Warming

Members of the A. G. P. club gathered in the new home of Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Rhodabaugh, located on the Wilmington road, for a house warming Friday afternoon, the event being featured with a chicken dinner served at noon. The tables were prettily decorated in tones suggestive of the fall season. The after dinner hours were whiled away with various games and music, closing a most enjoyable afternoon.

Crime Never Pays

SALE OF MUNICIPAL CONDUIT

NEW CASTLE city council has sold the municipal conduit system to the Bell Telephone company. The transaction is closed, and $70,000 has been paid for the property to the city by the company.

For the past two years or more this matter has been in the public eye while council and the company negotiated for the transfer of the property.

The conduit, built some thirty years ago, at the time of its construction was the vision of municipal ownership enthusiasts, and was expected to prevent monopoly, force all wires underground, and bring in much revenue for the city.

At the time of its construction it was the idea that both high and low tension wires could be run in the same conduit system, but after its completion a legal battle of long drawn out proportions that extended probably ten years, resulted in the decision that high and low tension wires could not be forced in the same conduit system.

The construction of the conduit did result in getting the telephone wires underground, and those of the telegraph companies, it is conceded, but that is about all the tangible results that can be proclaimed. The city never got any rental commensurate with the cost of building the underground system.

Under conditions as they exist today and have existed for some years past, councilmen were confronted with the problem of selling the conduit system when $70,000 could be realized for it, or of expending more of the citizen's funds in making needed repairs to the system without any indication of any increased rentals from the ducts.

They elected to sell the conduit system.

From the silence of the citizens on the project, it seems evident that the sale met with general approval, although there are some who question the wisdom of the move.

Whatever our opinions on the sale may be at this time, the sale is made, and New Castle has the money.

The problem of the future for city council is the wise use of this money. It is the general consensus of opinion that it should be used for nothing but permanent city improvements.

We have no doubt but that is also the opinion of councilmen. The public should be kept fully informed as to the use to be made of this fund, and some effort should be made to sound out sentiment of the citizenry on the project, we believe.

APATHY—MAY BE COSTLY.

Occasionally the nation should turn from its economic problems and ponder upon the fundamentals. President Hoover did that at Kings Mountain when he asked the country to reflect upon the struggles that made America free and opened the way for its marvelous growth.

Americans are prone to forget their debt to the revolutionary forefathers unless reminded of their sacrifices. Liberty is taken for granted, as some natural right that costs nothing and can not be lost or destroyed. It is never lightly purchased and it not long maintained except at the cost of eternal vigilance and enlightenment.

America, the home of the free, might easily become the home of tyranny and despotism. There are forces constantly at work in every country, which might destroy self-government just as they have overthrown benevolent monarchies, republics and parliamentary governments.

The danger is not from little groups of political fanatics and theorists, but from civic apathy, powerful bloc interests and the despotism of both majorities and powerful minorities.

This will cease being a representative form of government with democratic principles when the laws are dictated and the government is administered by tyrannical blocs and interests instead of according to the will, traditions, customs and rights of the whole people.

It is very easy to rise in your own estimation.

Office-seekers, like brides, promise anything until after the ceremony.

Mayor Thompson thought it was all good clean fun until two of Chicago's bandits got his wife's jewels.

You can't mistake them. If they point with pride they are already in office; if they view with alarm they are trying to get into office.

That Georgian who said, "Know what you want and then buy it," should have added, "But don't let the senate know how much you paid for it."

Wall Street's Incubator.

The Dean's For Eugenics.

Hawk's New Triumph.

The Prohibition Verdict.

By ARTHUR G. BRISBANE

(Copyright, 1930, King Features Synd., Inc.)

The Wall Street baby had another pain Thursday. One firm failed as an aftermath of stock gambling, and men that should know better will be frightened by this little incident in the richest country in the world.

From the biggest business men to the smallest nobody, we all should stop talking pessimism, and, instead, show signs of energy and courage. If we did, conditions would be better.

In modern incubators there are no sharp corners, the inside being made round to keep chicks from crowding into a corner and smothering each other.

Wall Street needs to be rebuilt apparently on incubator principles. Those easily scared to death are inclined to crawl into a corner and smother each other's prosperity.

Dean Inge, of St. Paul's Cathedral in London, most important clergyman, warns his fellows in the church that they must not "ignore the eugenics," namely, those interested in producing better children.

Nature does not know anything, according to the dean. We have scientific knowledge and if we don't use it, that is "counted to us for a sin."

The Dean even takes an interest in the theory that a woman should be allowed to regulate the size of her family.

There is something in the statement that nature doesn't always function perfectly. Of the first two brothers born on earth by nature's process, Cain and Abel, one killed the other.

Another ocean hop started Thursday, when Capt. Boyd and Lieut. Connor left Harbor Grace, just before noon, on the way to England.

The most remarkable flying news is that Capt. Hawks, who now ranks as the first flier in America, or anywhere else on earth, flew from Philadelphia to New York in 20 minutes, his average speed 270 miles an hour.

That speed, if sustained, would make the trip to Paris in less than half the Lindbergh time.

Those now living will become used to this advertisement: "New York to Paris or London in 10 hours, with refund for any delay of more than 30 minutes."

Mr. Wickersham, head of President Hoover's commission on prohibition, intimates that a report will soon be made, and is said to believe that if the impossibility of enforcing prohibition is proved, that fact should be stated.

Already many leading politicians, including the Republican and Democratic candidates for governor in New York, have declared that prohibition is a failure, also a criminal injury to the country, and should be repealed.

The daily murder news, bootleg news, racketeering and general crime wave news indicate the necessity of reaching some decision as early as possible.

As regards changes in prohibition, the probabilities, in the opinion of one humble observer, is that government, in obedience to public opinion in large cities, will ignore the law, not repeal it.

This would put the country on a permanent basis of whisky made by bootleggers, beer made by those that don't know how to make it, everyone allowed to drink as much and die as soon, as he chooses.

It is said the British never repeal a law, but let it die of its own accord. The British rule that a man may beat his wife with a stick no bigger around than his thumb remained law, long after such beatings had lost public approval.

Earthquakes disturb many parts of Europe, including Germany, Austria and Italy. Yesterday buildings in Vienna were cracked, chimneys shaken down.

A hundred years ago it would have been said that the human race was being punished, if a little later, for its wickedness in the great war. But men recently have concluded that the laws of nature run along evenly, and are not used by Providence to punish the wicked.

They would not believe as they did in 1690 that St. Sebastian sent a plague, killing thousands, because no monument had been erected to him, and stopped the plague when the monument was hastily completed.

NEW YORK City does not seem to feel any hard times pinch. It is announced that in 1931 the city will spend $1 million more than in 1930.

The additional millions could easily be spent wisely, usefully and productively. Perhaps they will be. New York City, spending more than six hundred million dollars in 1931, will spend more than twice as much as the United States Government used to spend in the days of Tom Reed and the billion-dollar Congress.

Safety Council's Leadership Stirs Machine Age Campaign

New Demand For Public Cooperation Created By Gathering Of Thousands Interested In Record Of Disastrous Accidents

Full recognition of the need of widespread public cooperation in safety measures to meet the conditions of the American machine age has been given by the country as a result of the meetings of the National Safety Council at Pittsburgh, with an attendance of 7,000 men and women interested in the growing record of disastrous accidents. Indorsement is given to the campaign to induce all Americans to give intelligent and thorough manner, the injuries and losses are much severe.

"This large gathering," asserts the YOUNGSTOWN VINDICATOR, "shows the extent to which the movement for safety in industry and homes and on the highways has grown in the 19 years since the organization of the council. The exhibition of many safety devices shows what has been accomplished in the period. Twenty-five years ago such a gathering and exhibit were not thought of for safety then was a thing for only the individual to consider, but today it interests everybody because of the dangers on every hand in this machine age. Legislation and safety devices and campaigns have done much to prevent accidents, but the highways still present a problem, for this year's record of automobile fatalities is expected to be 36,000. This killing of people in streets and highways at the rate of nearly 100 a day shows how helpless mankind is in protecting itself against its own inventions."

Quoting a statement made at the meeting that "deaths from accidents in the United States during the year totaled 100,000," and the opinion expressed by the delegates that "the reduction of this frightful loss should become a matter of chief public concern," the CHATTANOOGA TIMES points out that "President Hoover pledged all the Federal agencies under his control as aids," and offers the further comment: "It need hardly be said if every pedestrian and every driver of a machine should become personally conscious of his or her responsibility and should be constantly warned by his or her knowledge of the potentiality for danger lying in every careless movement or reckless turn of the wheels, accidents would be reduced to such as may be inevitable."

There has been a lot said about the mean farmer who installed electric lights in his hen house in order to make the hens lay more eggs but an angling enthusiast, just returned from a vacation up-state New York, brings a tale of the clever manner in which a friend keeps the fish in his pools plump and lively.

This trout, bass and pickeral admirer, instead of feeding his fish liver or other commonly used sustenance, has devised the simple plan of suspending electric lights a few inches above the surface of the pools.

At night myriads of bugs and flies hover about the light bulbs and the fish, jumping for them, get both food and exercise.

"Now, My Family—"
Don't talk about your family connections. If you have had illustrious ancestors you should be a person of much higher standing than you are. If you have the fine heritage of being well bred you have not lived up to your heritage if you often allude to it.

If you did you would not talk about it, except to those of your own family who are directly interested and personally wishing to discuss it.

If you have failed to maintain the position your family established you are not a credit to your forebears.

With what they handed down to you either in money or in mental equipment if you have not advanced in position and advantages you should be ashamed of the fact.

Every time you allude to your ancestors and what they were in an effort to give yourself a better standing you are admitting your own inferiority.

(Special To The News)
NEW WILMINGTON, Oct. 11.—Bessemer High school's strong football eleven proved too much for the New Wilmington Hi boys in their annual clash here Friday afternoon. Bessemer winning by a score of 20-0, despite the hard battle put up by the locals.

Bessemer scored a touchdown in each of the first three quarters, being held scoreless in the final quarter.

With Grist, their right half back leading the way with many fine gains, the Bessemer boys seemed difficult to stop in their steady marches toward the goal line.

New Wilmington put up a game fight, and played good football at times, but were unable to place the ball within scoring distance. Ken Myers showed up best for the local gridirers.

Bessemer made a total of 12 first downs while New Wilmington was able to garner but five. Bessemer was penalized a total of 35 yards during the game, while New Wilmington was penalized 30.

The lineup and score:

Bessemer 20. N. Wilmington 0.

What is Connie Mack's correct name?
Connie Mack's correct name is Cornelius McGillicuddy.

Who was Joseph Pulitzer?
Joseph Pulitzer was an American journalist born in Budapest, Hungary, April 10, 1847. His father was a Jew and his mother a Roman Catholic. At 17 he emigrated to the United States, where he served in the Civil war and then became a reporter on the Westliche Post in St. Louis, Mo. In 1876-77 he served as Washington correspondent of the New York Sun and afterwards spent some time in Europe as a special correspondent for the same paper. In 1878 he bought the St. Louis Evening Dispatch and the Evening Post, combining them as the Post-Dispatch. His greatest work was in the development of the New York World, which he acquired from Jay Gould in 1883, building up a circulation which had no rival until the advent of the Hearst newspapers, and proving an important factor in the presidential election of Grover Cleveland. He gave $1,000,000 to Columbia university for the building and endowment of a school of journalism. He died October 9, 1911.

Where is the last Atlantis?
According to an ancient tradition, Atlantis was a large island situated in the Atlantic ocean over against the Pillars of Hercules. It is first mentioned by Plato, who describes it as the home of a powerful nation existing 9,000 years before his time, and which was finally engulfed by the sea. Plato gives a glowing description of the island and its fabulous history. The account of Plato has been considered by some as a pure invention of the author's imagination, while others have looked upon it as a real tradition. Various attempts have been made to identify the island. The Canary Islands, the Scandinavian peninsula, the American continent and Crete have all been thought to be the land in question.

Frances Willard Day Observed

Central W. C. T. U. Gives Over Program To Memory Of Founder Of Union

The Central W. C. T. U. held their annual Frances Willard program Friday evening in the Y. W. C. A. with an interesting program of the life of the founder of this beneficent organization given in a splendid manner.

"Frances Willard's Girlhood" was given by Mrs. H. G. Voorhees; "Frances Willard as a Teacher and Reformer" was read by Mrs. Harper Dick; Vivian Kenna gave an oration, "Frances E. Willard," written by Mrs. Stevenson after she had made a study of the marvelous statue of white marble of Miss Willard, which stands in the Hall of Fame at Washington, D. C.

Eleven quotations from Frances Willard were given by Mrs. Henderson and Mrs. William Kennedy told of a new memorial which was started last August in the form of a picnic at the old school house at Janesville, Wisconsin, to preserve the little wooden structure as a national shrine in memory of the little girl who attended its classes many years ago.

Mrs. Jennie Forquer led the devotional period and at the business session reports were given of 34 bouquets, 16 sick calls, 24 magazines, 7 garments, 5 glasses of jelly, 3 dozen cookies, 1 quart of mince-meat, 7 evangelistic meetings, 3 devotional, 3 gospels and bibles, 10 literary books, 20 book marks and money $14.10, new member 4, Mrs. Eleanor Leazar, Mrs. Sarah Richards, Mrs. Mabel Lusk and William Bender as an honorary member.

November 14 will mark the date of the next meeting.

Held For Court By New Bedford Justice

At a hearing held before Squire Zedaker of New Bedford last night, Dennis Livermore and John Milahenson, were held for court on charges of larceny in connection with the disappearance of some auto parts. They had been previously held for violation of the motor code by an alderman in Sharon. Following the hearing they were taken back to the Mercer county by Constable McGlenahan. After their trial in the Mercer court they will be tried here.

Sketch Objects In Home, Wally Bishop Advises Contenders For Prize

Creator Of "Muggs McGinnis" Says Ordinary Pencil And Paper All That Is Necessary For Start

A leaf from Wally Bishop's sketch book

Editor's Note: This is the first of a series of lessons by nationally famous cartoonists for the benefit of boys and girls entering the national cartoon contest of Central Press and New Castle News.

By WALLY BISHOP
Creator of "Muggs McGinnis"

SKETCH! SKETCH! SKETCH!
That's the first bit of advice I think a budding cartoonist should learn to follow.

Sketch anything and everything. Right in your own home you can find scores of objects worth sketching: chairs, tables, lamps, dishes and even members of your family.

You don't need fine tools to sketch. An ordinary pencil and scrap paper will do. But get in the habit of sketching. Do some sketches every day. Keep at it and you will find the drawings you are trying to do are more and more resembling your models.

DON'T GIVE UP! Remember, your sketch book is your best teacher.

Keep your old drawings and after you've sketched a while compare them with your latest sketches. You'll be in for a pleasant surprise. There's lots of fun in sketching. So make it a habit. All the great comic artists make sketches. They do this to keep from losing the ability to make those simple little lines which are the difference between good and poor drawing.

If they, who have already won their spurs, feel the need of constant sketching, how much more is it necessary that you who are beginning, practice this entertaining exercise.

Don't forget! Sketch! Sketch! Sketch!

County Exams To Be Held Monday

Tests Will Be Given All Eighth Grade Pupils Says Supt. Syling

County Superintendent of Schools John C. Syling, announces that with the opening of schools next Monday morning, an examination of all eighth grade pupils will be held throughout the county. The object is to check up for the high school entrance examination.

During next March another examination will be held and a third at the close of school. The papers of all three examinations are taken as a basis for entrance to high schools next year. The plan has been found to be much more satisfactory than a single examination at the close of the school year, as it gives teachers and superintendents a much better idea of the capabilities of the students, than could be obtained from a single examination.

Aerial Water Tower Fire Truck Will Be Shown Here Tuesday

American Marigus Apparatus Will Be Brought To City From Pittsburgh

Following disappointment of city fire officials, including Fire Chief C. H. Lynn, who went to Youngstown Friday for a demonstration of a new type fire truck of the American Marigus Fire Apparatus company of Indianapolis, Indiana, and left before the arrival of the machine from Warren, O., the fire company in a telegram received here announces that a special demonstration will be staged in New Castle Tuesday.

The telegram was from Richard Thomann, secretary and assistant treasurer of the company. Thomann states the truck arrived in Youngstown a half hour after the local men left the city. The truck will be taken here from a demonstration in Pittsburgh.

The apparatus to be shown here is the "1920 type" 165-foot aerial ladder and water tower which can be operated by only one man. The apparatus is said to be the latest development in fire fighting equipment.

Why Live On Farm?—It's A Habit When Equipment Has Modern S.

When better equipment is available, Lawrence county farmers will make the installation on their farms. At present, if the report of the Bureau of Statistics, Pennsylvania Department of Agriculture, on estimated farm and labor saving devices on county farms is to be taken as correct by the interested persons, it seems that farmers in this county know the conveniences of the average city home.

For instance, 1,580 farmers in Lawrence county have automobiles with which to make quick trips to towns in their districts. Four hundred and thirty farms have motor trucks to haul farm products. Tractors, too, may be found on 370 farms, and gas engines, great labor saving devices, number 580.

That farmers in this district well equipped for storing fodder, shown by the report which announces that 670 farms in the county have silos.

It seems that the modern farm, many examples of which are easily to be found on a short drive through Lawrence county, are equipped with the conveniences to be found in the average city home. It is reported that 1,110 farms in this county have telephone connections. Five hundred and eighty have electric service and 720 have radios.

Cream separators are found in 1,230 farms. Running water is available to 540 farmers and heating systems are found in 1,000 farms. Bath rooms are available in 240 farms.

THE TOWN DOCTOR

"DOCTOR OF TOWNS" SAYS
A FEW MORE POINTED PARAGRAPHS
A pretty good slogan for every merchant today is the old one "Don't pass us B U Y," and it would be good advice for every customer, for right now is the best time for everybody to "buy something."

How is business anyway—your business? Don't give that old worn out stock answer before you think it over, seriously. When you have thought it out on a fair and square basis, then ask yourself this question. "To what extent am I personally responsible for it?"

The biggest three words in 1930 selling (and everybody is selling you know) are Think, Work and Adapt.

A man from the West tells some men in the East that they cry too much and plan too little. Just a nice way of saying "cut out the squawking and go to work." Good advice and I know some firms who, having had that told them several months ago, profited by it. "Believe it or not," these very concerns are doing more business in 1930 than they did in 1929—not only doing more business but making more money.

Thomas Edison once said that "the American people will go to any extreme to avoid the necessity of thinking." That's rather cruel, but 1930 is sure proving it. Why not do a little individual thinking? Especially if that opinion is a depressing one? Never in the life of anyone under fifty has there been the opportunity to "get going to get it" that there is right now. The wise ones are already on their way.

The lights that control the traffic of business are green. They may look red to you, but remember there are lots of people who are color blind and don't know it. Take your foot off the brake and step on the gas. Just because the other fellow can't shift gears is no sign that you have to sit there and watch him, telling the world he is a bum driver. Besides that, you're holding up traffic.

Now is a mighty good time for all business people of every community to think about where their automobiles will be parked during business hours of these fall days. Parking their cars where customer cars could be parked proves Edison's statement, and is one sure way of putting a brake on business—their business.

Speakers—Rally Song Offertory—Announcements
Song—"Stand Up for Jesus"—School
Benediction—Dr. C. J. Williamson
Prayer and Postlude.

Motion Picture At Central Church

A great modern motion picture written and produced under the direction of James K. Shields, "The Transgressor," will be shown in the Central Presbyterian church Sabbath evening at 7:45 o'clock. The picture is presented by the Anti-Saloon League and is a true and timely story, interesting, absorbing and dramatic. The theme holds that it pays to be one hundred per cent American; that it pays to obey and help maintain the law, and be loyal to the constitution and the flag.

This picture has been shown in many churches and education centers with highest approval and appreciation.

Congregational Meet At Holy Trinity Church

Rev. A. M. Turkiewicz, pastor of the Holy Trinity church at the corner of South Mill and Jefferson street, announces that at the close of the Sunday morning 10:30 service there will be a special meeting of the congregation to hear the financial reports of the year from the members of the various committees and the pastor will report on the spiritual standing of the congregation and take up such other matters as should come to the attention of the parishioners.

It is expected that all members of the church will be enough interested in these reports to be present at the meeting.

Rally Day Plans At Nazarene Church

The Church of the Nazarene has set a goal of 300 for their attendance Sunday when they hold their annual Rally day service in the Sabbath school, which convenes at 9:30 a. m.

A special musical program will be conducted, when a feature will be the singing of Evangelist Floyd W. Kline of Columbus, Ga., who was a former vaudeville and cabaret performer. There will be addresses by splendid speakers and three prizes will be awarded to those responsible for the largest number of attendants.

Ohio Woman Will Speak At Church

Announcement comes from the First Spiritualist church of New Castle that Mrs. Roberts, of Lake Brady, Ohio, will take part in the afternoon and evening services on Sunday.

Mrs. Roberts was in this city two weeks ago and when she returned to her home, she left here many friends, and the news of her return to New Castle will be enthusiastically heard. Mr. Springstead, also of Lake Brady, and well liked by local people, will render several solos.

Promotion Day At Christian Church

Sunday morning at 10 o'clock there will be a promotion program given for the primary department of the First Christian Sabbath school when 37 members will leave the primary department and enter the junior department of the school.

The diplomas and Bibles will be given by Mrs. D. B. Woolcock and R. Montgomery and the welcome to the junior department will be given by Janet N. Clintock.

This is the largest class to graduate from the primary to the junior department in the history of the school and Mrs. Woolcock is very proud of the work done by the little folks, all of whom will be nine years of age during 1930.

Another way to keep from growing old is to show your companions how witty you are when the young stranger says to stick 'em up.

Floyd W. Kline Sings At Revival

Splendid Crowds Have Been Attending Services In Nazarene Church This Week

The revival at the Church of the Nazarene which has been running each night this week will continue every night through next week beginning at seven thirty o'clock. There has been a great interest shown this week by the members of the church and souls are finding God at every service. The crowds have increased each right considerably.

Reverend Lawrence Reed of Damascus, Ohio, is the evangelist and he is preaching the old time gospel as found in the Bible only. Rev. Reed is an able preacher. Song Evangelist Floyd W. Kline of Columbus, Georgia, is the song leader. And his solos each night are much enjoyed by those attending these services. Mr. Kline is an ex-vaudeville artist but has given his life and talent to this work that he may be a blessing to others thru his master.

The services begin each night at seven thirty, at West Falls street and Beaver.

Musical Service At Third Church

The Sunday evening service in the Third United Presbyterian church will be one of special interest inasmuch as it will be in the form of a musical program with some especially good numbers being presented.

Miss Catherine Newberry will preside at the console and David West will direct the choir.

The program will be carried out as follows:

Organ Prelude—"Toccata"—Dudley Buck
Chorus—"Let Mount Zion Rejoice"—Dr. Herbert Trio—"God Be Merciful"—Parry
Mr. and Mrs. Charles Harris and Mr. West
Solo—Mrs. Thomas McNicholas
Quartette—"Grant Us Peace"—J. C. Drew
Agnes O'Neill, Lula Kocher, David West, Roy McCowan

Offertory—"Beils of St. Ann"—Russell
Anthem—"Show Me Thy Ways, O Lord"—Gordon Williams
Solo—Mrs. Mary Lewis
Duet—"The Lord is My Light"—Dudley Buck

Mrs. Agnes O'Neill and Mr. West Male Quartette—Mr. Lewis, Mr. Jones, Mr. Harris, Mr. McCowan
Solo—Mrs. Charles Harris Duet—Jennie and Laura Mooney
Anthem—"He Shall Reign Forever"—J. B. Fenwick.

Pitiful Cases—The mother who tried being a pal to her daughter and was arrested for contributing to the delinquency of a minor.

Chest Workers Urged To Keep Up Good Work

Attorney Braham Warns Against Danger Of Feeling Task Is Hopeless

DRAWS CONCLUSIONS FROM SHARON SUCCESS

Addressing New Castle Community Chest workers, following their noon luncheon Friday, Attorney W. Braham warned the chest workers to refrain from feeling dejected because the task of raising the $61,500 goal aimed at, had not been secured by the date set for the closing of the campaign.

"The grave danger in a moment of this sort is that we get to feeling that it can't be done," Attorney Braham said.

Comparing New Castle with Sharon, he cited the fact that Sharon had completed their Community Chest campaign on Friday with a surplus of $7,000 over their goal, raising $117,000, where only $110,000 had been sought. There were 12,000 contributors to the Community Chest in Sharon, the district affected having a population about the same size as New Castle. To date, there have been but 2,789 contributors to the local chest. Conditions have been as bad in Sharon as they have been here, and prior to the campaign, the leaders of the community felt as bad as they did here.

"I can draw only two conclusions from the situation which apply here," Attorney Braham cited. "That is that the people of responsibility in New Castle have the feeling that others more responsible ought to get them there."

"The people of responsibility here ought to realize that there is growing up here, a 'defeatist' feeling, a feeling that it can't be done. There are a great many people here who have cut down their subscriptions, when they are perfectly able to pay."

and others who have not given any ways near what they should.

"The second conclusion is drawn from the rank and file. Any able-bodied man who is working ought to be ashamed to say, 'I have nothing to give.' I might say, 'I have nothing to give to him.'"

"One thing that less has been found of this year is this 'I don't believe in this or that policy.' When we affiliate ourselves with a church, whether we like the preacher or the organizer or the superintendent of the Sunday school. We should do the same thing for the Community Chest."

"We need to spread the idea that if a man can give only 15 cents, as an instance was cited here today, he should do it. We would have no difficulty in putting the thing across then."

Judge Chambers urged the workers to get out and work their prospects during the remaining few days of the campaign which will close Tuesday and not let it be said, that the workers assembled in the room can't get the $61,000 needed.

George E. Lyon, one of the leading workers in the campaign stated that he felt the organization this year was one of the best that the Community Chest has ever had, and with such loyal workers to command, he felt that they would get the balance of the money needed.

Rev. G. S. Bennett, laughingly told the workers that lots of them might feel they had some tough prospects to work, but that they should go along with him to visit some of the ministers of the city.

He told of the plan of his church, the First Christian had evolved to help out, namely that the loose collection taken in at the services Sunday and the entire Sunday School offering, would be given to the Community Chest.

It was moved and seconded that the other churches of the city be asked to do the same thing.

The workers then adjourned to meet for report on next Tuesday.

Wood Alcohol Kills Ten In Newark, N. J.

(International News Service) NEWARK, N. J., Oct. 11.—Liquor made of wood alcohol was blamed today for the death of ten men in the past 48 hours.

Efforts were being made today to determine from whom the poisoned liquor was purchased. Dr. Harrison S. Martland, chief medical examiner, said examinations showed all of the victims had been drinking "cheap" liquor.

Five of the dead were unidentified.

Police squads searched the city for stills in an effort to locate the source of the lethal drink.

Melfi, Italy, Has New Earth Shock

(International News Service) MELFI, Italy, Oct. 11.—A three-second earthquake panicked the population today, without causing any damage.

The slight shock caused hundreds to flee into the open for fear that another catastrophe might occur such as was experienced some months ago, when an earthquake practically demolished this city, and scores of other communities in Southern Italy, killing and injuring thousands of inhabitants.

Lawrence County Farms And Farmers

By H. R. McCulloch, County Agent

PICK ABLE COWS TO MAKE DAIRY PROFITS.

Dairy profits depend primarily on the ability of cows to produce a high yearly average of milk and butterfat. To feed these cows properly they will return the greatest amount of money per dollar expended for feed is extremely important.

Good dairy cows provide an excellent market for many farm crops. Some cows pay less than $1 a month for pasture, $2 a ton for silage, $10 a ton for hay, and $20 a ton for grain. Other cows in the same herd may pay $3 or more a month for pasture, $10 a ton for silage, $30 a ton for hay, and $90 or more a ton for grain. Culling out the low producing cows to increase the value of the herd as a market for feeds is a profitable practice.

Home-grown feeds play a large part in feeding for milk profits. The growing of more legume hay, such as alfalfa, clover, and soybeans often will save hundreds of dollars otherwise spent for high protein feeds.

Protein is essential for milk production and is supplied in legumes of high quality and gives excellent results.

PACK ALL VEGETABLES AND FRUITS CAREFULLY.

Attention to fruits and vegetables is essential. Fruits and vegetables which are handled in many, many times as they pass through the usual channels of trade. The more fragile the commodity, the more carefully it must be packed.

Careless handling in picking, grading, and packing, and the use of weak containers will cause fruits and vegetables to become bruised. While this does not destroy their immediate usefulness, it opens the door for decay to enter and lowers their keeping quality. Bruised fruits and vegetables on the market in any appreciable amount will have the effect of lowering the market price of good stock.

There is a tendency on the part of shippers to pack produce excessively tight and in such a manner that undue strain is placed on the package. Tender fruits, such as peaches, are injured by tight packing or overloading the basket so that the lid has a high bulge. This places a strain on the package which it cannot stand and the result is waste of fruit and container.

GIVE BEES PROTECTION AGAINST WINTER COLD.

Winter is a crucial time in the life of bees. Proper packing has proved to be of considerable value in successful beekeeping.

Protection given by packing cases reduces the labor required of the bees in maintaining the cluster temperature. It helps, therefore, to conserve the energy of the bees, prolong their lives, and reduce the amount of food required for the winter.

For different parts of the state the amount of packing varies. In the higher and northern sections six inches of packing on all sides and on top and four inches below the hives seem necessary. In the naturally protected locations of the southern and southeastern sections of the state, packing may not seem necessary for successful wintering, but even there it protects the bees so that they can expand the brood chamber and build up more rapidly during early spring. Four inches of packing is sufficient for the average location.

USE GOOD LAYERS FOR SPECIAL BREEDING PEN.

Poultrymen of Lawrence county who maintain breeding flocks are finding it practical to select a few of the very best hens for a special breeding pen.

Hens that qualify for this pen should show that they are high producers by molting no earlier than October 1. Furthermore, they should be of good size, weighing at least four pounds, and they should have type and other desirable characteristics.

Last but not least, these hens should lay eggs averaging over 24

FRUIT GROWERS PLAN FOR 1931 STATE SHOW.

Pennsylvania fruit growers are looking forward to the 1931 State Farm Products Show to be held in Harrisburg next January. It will be the first show held in the new building and will offer the best opportunity Keystone orchardists have had to exhibit their products under ideal conditions.

Lawrence county growers are urged to make as many entries as possible in the coming show, which promises to be the most outstanding one ever held in the state. Arrangements have been made by the show management to store fruit immediately after picking for the exhibitors without any cost to them.

It is now time to select fruit for exhibition. In picking the show fruit, growers are reminded that average sized specimens for the variety are ideal. Fruit should be uniform in size and color. Condition and quality should not be overlooked as they are extremely important. Good condition and quality include freedom from physical, mechanical, disease, and insect injuries.

Premium lists offering attractive prizes in 14 classes may be obtained at the local Extension Association office, or from R. G. Bressler, State Department of Agriculture, Harrisburg, Penna.

Doctor Uses 500 Words On Peanuts

Nuts Rich In Protein Make Excellent Food

By LOGAN CLENDENING, M. D.

A magazine editor once told me that Mr. Irvin Cobb, the distinguished champion of the American pronunciation of the word "d-e-b-i-l-y," and master of other forms of beautiful letters, being in a mood of black despair at the thought of his dreadful craft, announced bitterly that he could write 10,000 words about a peanut. I shall here attempt only 500.

It would, however, be very easy to write 10,000 words on the peanut. Mr. Cobb probably did not realize how intricate a subject he had chosen. In case you don't know, you may be interested in the way a peanut grows. It is an annual plant, and as soon as the petals of the flower fall off the peduncle bends down and buries itself in the ground. The fruit, or pod, develops underground like a tuber. In some places it is called earth nut, or ground nut.

It belongs to the legume family, and is therefore related to the bean. Probably its native habitat was Brazil, but it was introduced into the old world soon after the conquest of South America, and now is grown in most warm countries. In the United States the greatest crop is grown in Virginia, North Carolina, Georgia and Tennessee.

As a food article it is magnificent. The vegetarians would have to go out of business if it were not for the nuts. (No double meaning is intended there). Nuts contain concentrated amounts of vegetable protein and fat.

Look, for instance, at the peanut. The edible portion has:

Protein	25 per cent
Fat	38 per cent
Carbohydrate	24 per cent

Eighteen grams will produce 100 calories, as against the 232 grams of pineapple required to produce the same amount.

There are nearly 2,500 calories per pound of peanuts.

Of the vitamin content, I have at hand no record. But I would suspect that on account of the fat content there are vitamins A and D present. When it comes to digestion and absorption, however, nuts do not fare so well. Unless thoroughly chewed so that a good deal of their juice is swallowed, not very much of the substance is digested in the human digestive tract. Since they are poorly digested, much of their heavy nutritive load is wasted.

Lecture On Holy Land At Euclid Church

"The Holy Land" will be the subject of a lecture to be given Monday evening in the Euclid avenue Methodist church by Dr. C. G. Farr, district superintendent of the Erie conference. His talk will be based on personal experience and travel in this country.

The meeting is scheduled to begin at 7:45 and there will be no admission charged but a free will offering will be lifted.

"Y" Boys' Work Meet Sixth On Schedule Of State Committee

Boys' Work Leadership Institute Here October 14 Will Follow Johnstown, Pa., Meet

The boys' work leadership conference to be held in the banquet room of the local Y. M. C. A. October 14, under the direction of state and national "Y" boys' work directors, will be the sixth conference of the sort conducted throughout the state, according to W. A. Thomas, Boys' Work Director here.

The schedule for the conferences, arranged by the state committee of the Y. M. C. A. is as follows:

Scranton Y. M. C. A., October 6.

Allentown Y. M. C. A., October 7.

Pottsville Y. M. C. A., October 8.

Germantown Y. M. C. A., October 9.

Johnstown Y. M. C. A., October 13.

New Castle Y. M. C. A., October 15.

Some preliminary meeting will be held with special groups like boys work committees, church leaders and others but the institute proper will start at 5 p. m. The institute group will take supper together and hold a third session after supper. Registration cards can be secured at the local institute.

The institute will be largely an informal forum on problems of leadership. It will be adjusted to meet local conditions and situations. It will be the plan, however, to consider educational principles, late developments in sociology and psychology affecting boys' work as well as analyze the best experience in developing character through group work.

The visiting boys' work team will consist of A. R. Klemer, regional boys' work secretary of the National Council of the Y. M. C. A. and Charles E. Ford, boys' work secretary of the State committee of the Y. M. C. A.

Assigns Right On Patent To Local Plant

Lester L. Lewis Granted Patent Rights On Novel Annealing Furnace

BLAIR STRIP STEEL IS ASSIGNED RIGHTS

(By Arthur C. Wimer, Special Washington Correspondent of The New Castle News.)

WASHINGTON, D. C., Oct. 11.—Only a few days after the steel plant of its plant on Butler avenue, the Blair Strip Steel Company of New Castle has been assigned the patent rights on a novel annealing apparatus, according to announcement coming from the United States patent office.

The patent office has granted the patent rights on the annealing apparatus to Lester L. Lewis of New Castle, inventor of the device, and Lewis has assigned the patent to the Blair Company. Lewis filed with the patent office application for the rights on his invention December 2, 1929.

The New Castle man has been allowed all claims on the annealing apparatus, which the patent office describes as:

In apparatus for annealing, the combination with a housing having separable parts adapted to be sealed during use, of a seal for the joint between the parts, and means for delivering to within the body of the seal an agent neutral to the work being annealed.

In apparatus for annealing, the combination with a housing comprising a tray and an annealing pot thereon, of a seal for the joint between the tray and pot, and means for discharging gas into the body of the seal.

The pictures will include a comedy and several travelogues, which will be of great educational value.

Atlantic Fliers Recount Battle With Elements

Captain Boyd And Lieutenant Connor Will Proceed To London

MAYOR OF TESCO HOSPITABLE HOST

American Fliers "Lucky" That Land Was So Close
When Gas Line
Clogged

(International News Service)
TESCO, Scilly Islands, Oct. 11.—The sturdy Bellanca monoplane Columbia, which in its second trip across the north Atlantic brought Capt. J. Errol Boyd and Lieutenant Harry P. Connor safely to land on this westernmost extremity of the British Isles, will resume its flight today.

The intrepid fliers narrowly escaped a plunge into the sea with their machine when a clogged gasoline feed-line crippled the motor within 30 miles off land's end, barely allowing them to glide the last two or three miles to a perfect landing on Sunday beach here after 23 hours and 40 minutes in the air. They hopped off from Harbor Grace, N. F., at 11:20 a. m. New York time Thursday.

Communication Slow.
Slow communication facilities prevented speedy transmission of the success of the trans-Atlantic hop to the mainland for nearly three hours. Because the plane had been unheard of and unsighted for 17 hours, some anxiety had been felt for the safety of the aviators, who dared the vast ocean expanse without radio facilities.

The hazards of the 2,300-mile dash and its sudden perils were described by the aviators to the mayor of Tresco, who reviewed the account for International News Service after their long battle against the elements, retired for a night's rest.

"After leaving Newfoundland," the mayor quoted Captain Boyd as saying, "we encountered rough weather, which grew quite a bit worse and finally developed into conditions little short of a hurricane during the late afternoon and night Thursday."

Fine Navigators.
"Despite the fact that the dangerous part of the flight was made in the darkness, and that we were unable to check our course by sighting landmarks, Lieutenant Connor's magnificent navigation was never faulty and it brought the Columbia through without hesitation or confusion as to our whereabouts."

"The wind forced us about 150 miles south of the intended course and so we approached Tresco from the southwest. Only for the fact that we had a slight oil spray and trouble with the gas feed lines, we would have gone on to Croveden and arrived there in time for dinner. As it is, we are happy enough to accept the kind hospitality of the mayor here."

The fliers, in their final hop to London, will carry a special bag of Tresco mail, the first American aviators to transport British mail from one group of islands to another within the empire.

HEADS SOCIETY OF BANK WOMEN

Miss Grace S. Steerner

Miss Grace S. Steerner, assistant vice-president of the Association of Bank Women, was recently elected president of the Association of Bank Women, an organization composed of women who are bank officials. Miss Steerner believes that women have a definite place in the business world, and that it is necessary for each one "no matter how small her role," to realize that she is not merely holding her job, but contributing to the general reputation of the business woman of the future.

Buick Series 8-50, Lowest Priced Valve-In-Head Straight 8 In World

Every Buick for 1931 is a Valve-in-Head Straight Eight. There is no compromise throughout the entire line. Buick carried the development of the Valve-in-Head six-cylinder engine to the greatest possible limit in the six-cylinder field and then designed and perfected this remarkable Buick Valve-in-Head Straight Eight; it provides great advancement in brilliant performance. And this famous car sells for less money than the fine Buick sixes of last year. It is the lowest priced valve-in-head straight eight in the world.

In the Buick Series 8-50 Valve-in-Head Straight Eight engine Buick supplies the desired smooth flowing power found only in the fine car field. This series also places Buick's sturdy Valve-in-Head engineering within the reach of almost every motorist. With performance that knows no peer in its price class, this Buick accelerates in high gear from 10 miles to 60 miles per hour, in only 23 seconds. It climbs an 11.6% hill in high gear from a start of five miles per hour, and speeds over the crest at 28 miles per hour. A consistent speed of 75 miles per hour can be maintained hour after hour.

Park Your Car Here—Only 25c For Six Hours

You'll want to keep your car in a heated garage this fall and winter, and whether you park your car during working hours or while you attend the theater or go shopping, remember that our modern storage garage is at your service. You may park your car here for six hours any time during the day or evening for 25c, or 15 hours for 50c. Or, if you like, you can park regularly day and night for $7.50 per month, or $5.00 per month for day storage only.

Four Great Lines Of Cars Built By Cadillac

The Cadillac Motor Car Co. now presents four great lines of cars: the LaSalle 8; the Cadillac 8; the Cadillac V-12, and the Cadillac V-16. These lines of cars contribute to one another a tremendous influence in sales, a marked advance in values and make possible the low prices at which Cadillac and LaSalle cars are sold.

Many of these models are now on display in our showroom, any of which we will gladly demonstrate at your convenience.

Two Great New Cars of Exceptional Values—Oakland 8 and Pontiac 6

Continuing a long established tradition of building better automobiles year after year, Oakland takes pleasure in offering for your consideration two great new cars of exceptional value.

The first of these is the New Oakland Eight—the car with superior performance.

The second is the New Series Pontiac Six—a finer car with a famous name.

Each one of these cars is an achievement of which Oakland is justly proud. For each represents, within its price range, an unusually high standard of style, performance, economy and long life.

However favorable may be your impression when you read this short message, we urge you to be sure to investigate them further, and obtain all the facts about their value.

Study the smart styling and new Duco colorings of their impressive new bodies by Fisher. Examine their trimly-tailored interiors with exclusive new Terner fittings. Test the performance of the car you prefer in a trial drive. Only then will you know how much more you get for every dollar you invest in the New Oakland Eight or the New Series Pontiac Six.

FACTS

—about used car allowances

Most new car sales now involve the trading in of a buyer's used car. More and more people are asking: "Why should my used car seem to have several values? . . . Why should dealers in different makes of cars offer me allowances differing materially? . . . Does the largest allowance offered mean the best deal for me?"

Here Are Basic Facts:

1. Your used car has seemingly different values because competitive dealers are bidding to sell you a new car.
2. Your used car has only one fundamental basis of value: what the dealer who accepts it in trade can get for it in the used car market.
3. The largest trade-in allowance which is offered on your used car is not necessarily the best deal for you. Sometimes it is, but sometimes it is not.
4. An excessive allowance may mean that you are paying an excessive price for the new car in comparison with its real value.
5. Judge the merits of the new car in comparison with its price, including all delivery and finance charges. Then weigh any difference in allowance offered on your used car.

When you are ready to trade in your present car, remember that after all you are making a purchase and not a sale. You are buying a new car and simply applying your present car as a credit toward the purchase price of the new car.

Lawrence Auto Provides Real Service

We realize our success depends on the execution of this trust and we accept it gladly.

Care Will Save Your Car—Let Us Help You Avoid Winter Repair Bills

Never were truer words spoken, if we could only get the car owners to appreciate the value of our preventive service.

Electrical System

Now is the time to prepare your car for winter driving. The checking up of the electrical system will prevent the failure of your car to start some cold morning when you are late getting started down town or perhaps, some cold night after enjoying a show or a party your car refuses to start when all the garage men are in bed. You have the waiting and the annoyance, plus the expense where if a check-up had been made you would have only had the expense.

Gear Lubricant

Right now—before cold weather comes—drive in and let us give your car the winter protection it needs. The summer gear lubricant in your car is too "heavy" to give protection, and it isn't cleaned out, it will cause grinding, worn-down and sticking gears this winter. You'll notice the difference in driving after we have serviced your car with Winter Gear Lubricant and checked up on the battery, crankcase and other vital spots.

Cooling System

A thorough cleaning of your cooling system and filling with a good non-boiling anti-freeze now will last all winter. Prevent worry, vexation and expense. Don't wait until a cold snap is upon us, or you will encounter a number of car owners who have put off until the last minute to have anti-freeze put into the radiator. None can be serviced properly on account of the temporary rush of business. If alcohol is used, it is a continual hazard all winter as alcohol boils at a lower temperature than water, and due to the sudden and extreme changes in temperature in this locality must be continually watched and added to all winter.

There is an anti-freeze on the market today that can be used continually the year around. Isn't it logical then to have your car carefully prepared for winter driving before winter is here, when service men have the time to do it carefully? It will cost less money and save so much worry and inconvenience. Come in and let our service men explain how we can save you money by preparing your car for winter driving now.

Cars Washed, Polished and Cleaned—Call Us

Sometimes you want more than just a car wash. You want the upholstery dry cleaned, car polished, etc. Here is just the place. Call us—we will call for and deliver your car, no extra charge.

This Winter Motor In the Shelter of HaDees Hot Water Heat

There's really no need for you to shiver through another winter—to shudder at even the thought of cold weather motor. Not when HaDees Hot Water Heat is here to keep you warm.

This winter, drive where you wish—whenver you wish—just as often as you wish. Drive with HaDees Heat in your car and be comfortable on even the bitterest of sub-zero days.

HaDees Hot Water Heaters keep the cold where it belongs—outside your car. Inside, you enjoy the coziness of your own living room. For a HaDees heats your automobile just as you heat your home—with clean, odorless hot water.

The air inside a HaDees heated car is not only warm—it is fresh and healthful as well. There are no poisonous fumes—no odors—no gases—because there are no connections with the exhaust pipe.

Ask owners, as we have, if they are satisfied with their HaDees Heaters. Invariably, they answer "Yes—and I recommend it to my friends." Could one ask for a stronger endorsement?

All summer long you build up your health—don't dissipate it this winter in a cold and draughty car. Protect your health—your family's—your friends. Motor in the shelter of HaDees Hot Water Heat.

Missionary Women In Session Friday

First Methodist Society Hears Reports At Meeting; Delegates Named

With a large representation of the membership present, the Women's Foreign Missionary society of the First Methodist church assembled Friday afternoon for its regular meeting with Miss Ada Newton of Grant street as hostess. Presiding during the afternoon was the president, Mrs. Martha Ketter.

Opening the afternoon's program was a circle of prayer during which the members interceded for one of their number who has asked for their prayers. Each member took part.

From Mrs. Ketter the society heard of her work as group leader.
At the same time it was announced that several others have commenced their leader's activities. The chapter was also informed by Mrs. J.
L. Stratton that "A Cloud of Witnesses" will be the book discussed for this year. She explained the book.

Devotionals were conducted earlier in the meeting by Mrs. W. A. Strit-meyer. A hymn, "What a Friend We Have in Jesus" marked the opening number. Next came the scripture lesson given with the responsive readings by the society.
Following the lesson Mrs. E. N. Baer led in prayer.

During the meeting Mrs. Ketter gave an interesting report of the Oil City conference marking the 60th anniversary of the Philadelphia branch. After the report Mrs.
Stratton moved that a vote of thanks be given Mrs. Ketter for her enlightening report.

Delegates to the district conference of the Foreign Missionary society at Sharon on October 15 and 16 were chosen by the organization yesterday. Mrs. J. B. Daugherty and Mrs. Ira S. Fulkerson were named to represent the local society.

At the close of the meeting Mrs.
Ketter announced her committee chairmen for the new year. They are as follows:
Interdenominational, Mrs. J. L.
Stratton; evangelism, Mrs. W. A.
Stritmeyer; stewardship, Mrs. Stratton; temperance, Mrs. E. N. Baer, extension, Mrs. J. E. Whittaker; mite box, Mrs. A. R. Kingsbury; assistant, Mrs. S. M. Reare; subscription, to friend, Mrs. J. E. Drake; mite box, Mrs. C. A. Reed; press, Mrs.
J. B. Daugherty; mystery box, Mrs.
D. N. Keast.

recently.

On Sunday morning, October 12, baptismal services will be held at Zion church, at which time several members will be taken in, some by letter and some by baptism.

The W. M. S. of Zion church met on Wednesday, October 8, at the church. It was an all day meeting.
Much was accomplished. Quilting and making of garments was part of the work accomplished. Plans are under way for a bazaar to be held at the grange hall early in November. Devotionals were conducted by Mrs. Frank Cooper, and those present were Mrs. Nancy

Fugitive For 47 Years Brought Back And Freed

Hunted For Almost Half A Century, Nemesis Over-takes James Neely In Person Of Son Of Man
He Is Alleged To Have Slain In Fight
Over Boyhood Sweetheart

JAMES
NEELY

BERRY WALKS
WITNESS TO FIGHT OF 27 YEARS AGO.

ALABAMA, Oct. 11.—For 47 years he has been a wanderer. He has trailed through half a dozen states.
In one state he was married. In another he was separated from his wife.

And so at last his wanderings have ended. There is no reason any longer for him to exile himself from the place he once called home.
As a fugitive from justice he has been brought back to Alabama, tried and acquitted.

He is to be tried for murder.

Hot-Headed Youth.
In his fragile old voice he will tell you without rancor why they arrested him. Yes, it was in 1883 that he killed a man. He knows that man's name, but his memory falters. He isn't quite sure why he killed him.
At 23, like most young fellows, he was hot-headed. The acts of 23, however, do not matter much to an old man of 70. Nothing matters, save that still small voice of conscience which cannot be stilled.

Forty-seven years ago James Neely fled from his home and the scenes of his boyhood because of a fatal fight on top of Georgia mountain, near Guntersville, Ala.

In that fight Hiram Cooley, another young man, was killed.

All For a Woman.
It was all over a woman. But the woman angle faded from the mind of aged Jim Neely. Life has beaten him. Penniless and feeble he was arrested in Tyler, Texas, where fate sent the son of the man he had murdered to make his home.

Witness Fatal Fight.
The brother of the slain man,
Jim Cooley, 79, and John Berry, 68, are the only two living witnesses of the battle that took place almost half a century ago. Cooley says the cause of the quarrel was over a 16-year-old girl, Mary Hilburn, now Mrs. Will Brown. The other witness to the fatal fight is John Berry, 70, a Georgia mountain farmer.

A Wanderer's Fate.
The fight brought about by unbridled temper of headstrong youth set James Neely, accompanied by his brother Tom, on the life of a wanderer. After weeks of toil thru rocky mountains they stopped in the mountains of East Tennessee, above Knoxville. It was there they pitched their lot.

After many years in east Tennessee, Neely again moved to a secluded settlement in southern Ohio, just above Cincinnati. His brother Tom died.

His Nemesis.
He went to Tyler to see another brother. While there he met his childhood sweetheart. But at Tyler also lived A. C. Cooley, the son of the man Neely is accused of slaying.
He recognized Jim Neely as the man accused of slaying his father and notified the authorities.

End of the Trail.
Neely was taken into custody and after three days in Tyler jail was started back to Alabama to stand trial in the Cooley slaying.

The 47 years of wandering, with his conscience never letting him forget that he was a hunted man, has left its mark on Jim Neely.

Await State Permit
For New Water Main

City Of New Castle Water Co.
Will Lay $5,000 Main
On Harlansburg Road

The City of New Castle Water company is awaiting a permit from the state department of highways to start work on a $5,000 water main project on the Harlansburg road to provide a water source for the New Castle Mining & Clay Products company and other domestic consumption. Howard B. Richards, superintendent of the water company said.

Work on the main was expected to be started during the past week.
The permit has not yet been received by the company. The line will be 2,000 feet long and will require three weeks for completion.
Twenty-five men will be on the job.

How strange that prominent citizens caught monkeying with the underworld don't claim to have been gathering evidence.

Hundreds From Lawrence County To Participate

Will Participate In Eucharistic Day Rally Sunday At Forbes Field

WILL MAKE TRIP IN VARIOUS WAYS

Between six and seven hundred men from Lawrence County alone will participate in the Eucharistic Day Rally at Forbes Field, Pittsburgh, Sunday evening at seven o'clock, which is being held under the auspices of the Diocesan Holy Name Society and will be one of the greatest public demonstrations of faith ever witnessed in this section of the country. It is anticipated that fifty thousand Catholic men of the Pittsburgh diocese will take part. Large delegations will attend from parishes of New Castle, St. Mary's, St. Joseph's, St. Vitus, St. Margaret, St. Philip and James, Madonna and St. Michael, also from Ellwood City, Hillsville and the surrounding territory.

There will be no special train due to the large number going by bus and automobiles. Owing to the anticipated heavy traffic, those going in this manner are advised to make provision for plenty of time to get there.

The ceremonies will start at seven o'clock and will be finished at 9 o'clock, enabling the men attending to get an early start home. The Eucharistic Rally is designed as a special act of devotion in honor of the Blessed Sacrament. His Holiness Pope Pius has sent his special blessing to this gathering and had granted a Plenary Indulgence to all Catholics of the diocese who receive Holy Communion on Sunday. Bishop Boyle will make a short address immediately preceding the principal speaker Bishop O'Reilly of Scranton, Pa. The Holy Name Society will be represented by this immense throng led by Father Delaney, diocesan director. While reciting the pledge each man will hold a lighted candle, creating a wonderful setting for renewal of loyalty to God and Country as the lights of the park are extinguished.

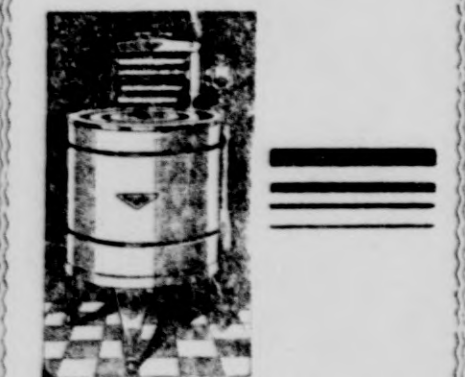

A special trained chorus of 800 voices directed by Father Carlo Rosini will lead the singing. The music will be broadcasted from the organ at Carnegie Music Hall. Preceding the benediction of the Blessed Sacrament, there will be a procession of 2,000 altar boys, 400 priests in full vestment, members of various religious orders and several visiting prelates. A specially designed altar has been erected in the center of the field. While for the Catholic men of the diocese, any man of whatever creed is welcome to attend. The gates of the park will open at five p. m.

Queer country! Jobs for everybody at $8 a day doing nothing in time of war, and no jobs for anybody in time of peace.

P. & L. E. Brings New Type Diesel Engine Here On Trial

Operates Over Junction Branch With Officials Aboard Today

VIEWED BY CROWD AT LOCAL STATION

On trial for the first time in the New Castle district a new-type Diesel gas-electric driven locomotive brought the 11-15 branch train of the Pittsburgh and Lake Erie railroad into the city from New Castle junction today.

Traveling on board the one-man operated locomotive were high operating officials of the road, including M. A. Smith, superintendent of motive power, Trainmaster George Marquis, and Road Foreman of Engines, J. S. Stewart, all from Pittsburgh.

For months the Pennsylvania and Baltimore and Ohio as well as the Lake Erie have thoroughly tested the new type engine in their Pittsburgh shifting yards, to determine as best as possible the practicability of its yard use. Trials have also been conducted to learn its advantages in hauling heavy passenger trains.

Interviewed on their arrival here, the Lake Erie officials explained the local trip was only a trial. The superintendent of motive power has authorized two or three more trips on the branch today, following which it will be returned to Pittsburgh.

Resembling to a certain extent a modern electric locomotive, the Diesel engine is much more fitted for yard shifting use than the large-sized locomotives used at present. It is thought that industries no doubt will in the immediate future substitute their steam-driven yard engines with the Diesel kind.

Speaking of speed, the Lake Erie officials said that on the road the Diesel's maximum speed is 45 miles an hour. This, coupled with the fact that its structure is so small, does not make its use for pulling passenger trains so practical. It was said its service will mostly benefit the industrial shifting field.

Scores of the passersby in the vicinity of the depot, curious to get a good view of the peculiar-looking engine crowded about the train as it arrived here this morning. Officials said the new locomotive was stationed at West Pittsburgh early this morning doing yard shifting at several plants there.

Must Pay Verdict For Damaged Well

Judge Chambers Hands Down Opinion In Arthur McGaffie And Other Cases

Under an opinion handed down by Judge James A. Chambers this morning in the case of Arthur and Edith McGaffie against the Wilkins Bros. Oil Company, judgment is directed to be entered for the amount of the verdict, which was for $500.

The case is one in which the McGaffies claimed that the water in a well had been contaminated by leakage from a gasoline tank at a gas station on Highland avenue extension. Following the verdict the defendants asked for judgment on the whole record which is refused in the opinion.

Other Decisions
In the case of Frank R. Webster against the New Castle Lumber and Construction Company, a mechanic's lien is stricken off, following a hearing on a rule which is made absolute.

In the case of Kathryn Fetter and Kathryn Fetter White against Frank and Bessie Nessel, committee of the person and estate of Margaret C. White, rule to show cause why motion for non pros should not be granted, is discharged. The prothonotary is directed to enter upon the record of the case as parties defendant to the action, the names of Margaret C. White, for whom Frank and Bessie Nessel have been appointed committee.

In the case of Thomas A. Gilkey against Universal Sand Company, bill to quiet title to land formerly belonging to J. O. Rodgers and bought by Gilkey, it is ordered that the case be certified to the law side of the court. Plaintiff's bill should be taken up on a petition under the act of April 16th, with right of plaintiff to amend bill. The case grows out of a lease which the sand company had obtained from Rodgers and the provisions of which, it is claimed, have not been carried out by the company.

In the case of John J. Elmer against Sam and Bertha Leine growing out of a judgment by confession of a $300 note, in which Bertha asked that the judgment be opened as to her, a rule is made absolute and she is permitted to make her defense.

State Leaders Guests At Big Meeting Friday

Sons Of Union Veterans And Auxiliary Hold Big Get Together Meeting

FINE PROGRAM IS CARRIED OUT

Oscar L. Jackson Camp No. 249, Sons of Union Veterans and its auxiliary, last night in the Sons of Union Veterans hall in the City building, had the honor Friday evening of entertaining Jacob Wentzel, Uniontown, Pa., department commander of the Sons of Union Veterans of Pennsylvania, and his wife, Mrs. Nellie Wentzel, president of the Pennsylvania State auxiliary. There was a good turnout of the members of both organizations.

An interesting program of addresses, musical numbers, readings and special dancing numbers was carried out and thoroughly enjoyed. The evening was brought to a close by the serving of nice refreshments by the ladies of the local auxiliary.

Ralph M. Campbell, past department commander of the Sons of Union Veterans in Pennsylvania, was master of ceremonies.

He first introduced State Commander Wentzel and his wife to the assembled throng, they Judge James A. Chambers, a member of Oscar L. Jackson camp, who made the address of welcome to the honor guests, the two state leaders and Mrs. Mary Francis Barclay of Uniontown, state treasurer of the auxiliary.

State Commander Wentzel replied and in the course of his remarks commended the local camp on its activities and urged that the activities be increased and all eligibles be brought into the organization.

Mrs. Nellie Wentzel followed with some interesting remarks. George Wyman of Oscar L. Jackson camp, junior vice commander of the state organization, then spoke. Frank A. Hoyer, a local member, William Duncan, commander of Roundhead camp of Ellwood City, J. C. Robinson, commander of Corporal Henry Ford camp No. 166 and Secretary Ed. Richardson of the same camp, located in Franklin, Pa., also responded when called on for remarks.

The balance of the program was as follows: Song, Sonny Truby; song and dance—Dorothy Truby; solo—Mrs. La Rena Eddy; specialty joke and singing number—Richard Wallace and Walter McCormick; song—Clara Eddy; read—Mrs. Goldie Humble; reading—Marian Shaffer; dance—Dorothy Truby.

The affair was a success in every way and was highly commended by Department Commander Jacob Wentzel.

Smoke From Motor Confuses Man Who Sends Fire Alarm

Some alert person in the vicinity of Pearson and Division streets Friday night decided that only a fire could produce the smoke that he discerned in the frame garage owned by Paul Marcella. But instead of making an investigation first, sent an alarm that brought No. 5 and B truck from Central station.

Firemen traveling on Division street and turning into Pearson in front of the garage believed also that a fire was in progress inside. When they rushed inside it was found that an automobile engine was producing smoke and that the realistic affect was enhanced by a lighted electric lamp. The place is rented by James Messiner, firemen report.

Thrilling Ride Of Firemen Is Filmed For City's Civic Movie

Pedestrians Vision Disaster As Horner Helps Firemen Pass

Scores of pedestrians who saw the racing fire trucks whiz past Washington street up North Jefferson street, and failed to notice Cameraman Kinkelman grinding away the film wondered where the firemen were headed for. Color was added to the realistic run by the appearance of Chief of Police C. C. Horner and Capt. J. Ed. Elder who held back long lines of traffic.

With Chief of Police Horner himself holding back traffic at Jefferson and Washington street, city firemen from six companies raced from the front of Central Station up North Jefferson street while a cameraman of the Civic Art Film Production "shot" several hundred feet of film.

The work was directed by E. J. 6.

Baumer, president and general manager of the film producers. The scene was a part of a civic and industrial film, "Things You Ought To Know About New Castle," which will be shown at the Victor theatre when it is completed.

Three pumpers, four hose and chemical trucks and three service trucks were brought into the picture Friday afternoon. Companies 1, 2, 3, 4, 5, and 6 sent apparatus. No. 7, due to its location could not be filmed in action.

A realistic run was filmed when Central Station apparatus swung out of the station, as if in answer to an alarm. A close up was taken of Chief Lynn. A group of about 20 firemen from the six stations was later taken on Central's B truck. Apparatus lined on Jefferson street for the ride north past Washington street, where H. C. Kunkleman, cameraman, and Baumer were stationed.

In the scene were Captains Ralph Craig of No. 1, Ira M. Rhodes of No. 3 and John Clark of No. 4. Fire Lieutenants present were Walter McConnell of No. 2, James Thomas of No. 5 and N. L. Campbell of No.

Home Is P. T. A. Speaker's Theme

Oak Street Parent-Teachers Hear Rev. Margaret Joshua On Friday

CHAPTER PLEDGES AMOUNT TO CHEST

"Worthy Home Membership" was the uplifting theme of the Rev. Mrs. Margaret Joshua, who addressed the Parent-Teacher chapter of the Oak street school at their meeting Friday in the library of the school. The program was in charge of the president, Mrs. Leonard Cramer.

An impression Mrs. Joshua made was in connection with the tremendous part the home plays in making the proper influence on the child's mind, and the fact that parents should really know their own child and what he is thinking about. "Luxuries do not make home," the speaker exclaimed. "Real homes are based upon love, peace, honesty and integrity."

When Mrs. Joshua's talk was over short speeches were made by different members along the same line of thought as her inspiring message. The following spoke:

Worthy Home Membership, Mrs. H. H. Lackey.

What Schools Do for Homes, Miss Anna Dadds.

What Communities Do for Homes, Mrs. H. McCune.

Worthy Home Membership, Mrs. W. F. Kennedy.

A program was then given by the children of the school:

The children of grades one and two, under the direction of Miss Harriet Kearney, sang "Dapple Gray and Soldier Boy." A reading demonstration was given by the children of the third grade, under the direction of Miss Clara Smyth. Two girls from the sixth grade English class read papers, "My Autobiography," by Vivian McCallion; "A Book Review," by Alice Preston.

Mrs. Leonard Cramer, Mrs. F. O. Alexander and Mrs. J. Tackenberg were chosen as delegates from the Oak street P. T. A. to the state convention at Sunbury.

Mrs. Earl Cornelius was appointed to take charge of publications for the organization.

Mrs. F. O. Alexander gave a report of the county meeting of P. T. A. organizations, at which Mrs. E. P. Roe, the national secretary, spoke.

The Oak street P. T. A. voted $25 to the community chest, and a committee was appointed to help the needy at Christmas time.

The meeting was closed by a clever contest conducted by Mrs. J. Bert James, chairman of the program committee.

"Passport Party" Goes Over Big With Thirteen Youngsters At Library

It was really an exclusive affair. Only children with passports could attend. And did they have a good time? Rather?

Miss Alice Joyce, children's librarian, was the hostess, and the thirteen little guests who gathered in the juvenile department of the New Castle free public library last evening received more delightful training at the passport party than ever before.

Early this year Miss Joyce thought of the novel idea of making tiny "passports" to present to each child who reads 10 books of travel recommended by the library. The children took to the idea like a cat to salmon, and concentrated their attention on books of travel. Each book that was read from cover to cover was designated by Miss Joyce, in the "passport."

Then photographs of the youngsters were pasted in the passports—also the description of the owners. Thirteen youthful readers have completed the reading of the ten books and are the proud possessors of the unique rewards.

And last evening after school they had their party. And what a party it was. Miss Joyce told them all about the Fisherman and His Wife—and you would never have believed that a Fisherman and His Wife could be so interesting unless you had heard the children's librarian tell it.

Then there was a book guessing contest—and the children would be at the library still guessing, if Miss Joyce hadn't stopped them. The game was something like this:

"Who was it who went to the cupboard to get her poor dog a bone?"

"Old Mother Hubbard" the children would scream—and so on until an hour had slipped away. But what an enjoyable hour for those youngsters—what a memory.

One by one each child stood up and told which of the books they had read that they liked the most. They all agreed that the Twin Books are just about the height of enjoyment—some liked to read about the Japanese Twins, and some about the Italian Twins and the rest didn't care, just so it was about twins.

McKinley Jordan, colored, was found last night by Detective Jno. Young and Officer M. J. Young to be operating an automobile without a drivers license. He was turned over to the state highway patrol for punishment.

ELLWOOD CITY, Oct. 11.—At the regular semi-monthly meeting of the local members of the Womens Christian Temperance Union, which took place Friday night at the home of Mrs. Fred Duncan of Frisco, the following executives to head the many departments of the Union were selected as follows: "Americanization, Mrs. Harry W. Brown; Soldiers and Sailors, Mrs. R. A. Snedden; Sabbath Observance, Mrs. Ed Harbison; Temperance in the Sunday Schools, Mrs. S. A. Hartung; Moral Contest, Mrs. James Goodwell; Mothers Meetings, Mrs. Thomas Rogers; Flower Mission, Mrs. James McKim; Scientific Temperance Instruction, Mrs. Lloyd Randolph; Instructress, Mrs. Harry Reynolds; Week Day Bible Instruction, Mrs. Edith Barnhart.

The Duncan home was decorated with Halloween colors and a delicious luncheon concluded the meeting. Preceding the menu, Mrs. Harry Reynolds and Mrs. R. A. Snedden gave interesting reports of the County convention held recently in New Castle. The next meeting will take place November 14 at the home of Mrs. Joe Gettig of Ewing Park.

Squire Douds Gives Delayed Decision Friday

ELLWOOD CITY, Oct. 11.—Justice of the Peace S. Y. Douds of Ellwood City Friday announced his decision to hold the case of Edward Schweiger, Ellwood City storekeeper, for the December term of county court.

The defendant who furnished bond of $1,000 had been charged by DeGraff W. Robinson, New Castle constable with assault and battery and obstructing legal process. The case was heard by the squire Tuesday afternoon and decision had been reserved until Friday to enable Douds to study legal angles of one charge, obstructing legal process.

Mrs. Ferguson Is Club Hostess

ELLWOOD CITY, Oct. 11.—Mrs. J. G. Ferguson of Fourth street entertained the members of the A. M. L. Club and several special guests at her home Friday night.

Three tables of bridge were in play and among the special guests were: Mesdames Charles Adams, Grace Benford, Catherine Jones, Miss Claire Mickley and Miss Besse Runyan.

At the close of a pleasant evening score honors for the club went to Mrs. John Powell and Mrs. Harry Steinberger. Mrs. Grace Benford won the guest high score.

Later delicious refreshments were served by the hostess, assisted by Miss Runyan and Miss Mickley. In two weeks Mrs. Howard Wilson of Fourth street will entertain.

Doremus Class Has Wiener Roast Here

ELLWOOD CITY, Oct. 11.—Several members of the Doremus class of the First Baptist church enjoyed a wiener roast Friday night at the home of Mrs. John Sartwell.

This was the regular semi-monthly meeting of the class and previous to the wiener roast a business meeting was conducted. The class will assemble again in two weeks, place of meeting to be determined later.

IT'S TRUE

ELLWOOD CITY, Oct. 11.—It seems that there is a real slippery railing down the stairs in the Lincoln school and it is the habit of exuberant freshmen, and some upper classmen who should know better, to slide down the thing enroute to classes. The girls ride down side-saddle, and the boys straddle the rail and come whizzing down backwards. Yesterday a lad was late for class and chose this short-cut to make up lost time. He swished down backwards, and landed, feet out, at the bottom, just in time to ram one of the school officials in the back, catapulting him into a class room. Too scared to move, the culprit waited for the deluge—which wasn't too severe, as the official was so surprised and stunned that he couldn't compose a suitable reprimand at the moment, and school just had to go on.

Council Will Control Traffic By Ordinance

Council Puts Through Ordinance Providing The Control And Parking In City

ELLWOOD CITY, Oct. 11.—At a recent meeting in the City building, members of the Borough Council passed an ordinance on first reading, providing for the control of all traffic, both vehicular and pedestrian, regulating parking, fixing safety zones etc. The ordinance is most comprehensive in scope and is the result of weeks of study on the part of Council's Railway and Electric Lines committee acting in conjunction with the Streets and Police committees. The ordinance was drafted by M. A. Riley in keeping with a model traffic ordinance adopted in many cities and towns. The ordinance provides regulations for all traffic, for police directions, covers use of bicycles, and push-carts, which are banned on side walks; provides for the use of signs and traffic lights and other signals; and also controls the designation of cross walks and the regulation of pedestrian traffic at street crossings. One way and through streets prohibiting racing after fire trucks, stealing rides on the rear of vehicles and the use of roller skates and coaster wagons. The ordinance will be given further study before being passed on third and final reading. However, in event of its final passing, it is expected that the ordinance will be rigidly enforced by the city officials.

Other Business. Council also decided to consider a suggestion regarding the re-placement of one of the traffic lights, which the state ordered removed, at the corner of Sixth street and Crescent avenue, an intersection which has caused several accidents. Other lights will be erected at school buildings, and will be used when the pupils are going to and from school.

Noted Educator To Speak To Women

Dr. Thomas Kirby Of Iowa State University To Be Guest Speaker At Women's Club

ELLWOOD CITY, Oct. 11.—For the second meeting in the fall season of the Ellwood City Woman's Club, members of the program committee have been successful in securing Dr. Thomas Kirby, head of the Secondary Educational department of the Iowa State University at Iowa City. The securing of this noted educator was made possible through Supt. Ray Smith of the local schools. Dr. Kirby has been doing educational work for the schools for the past two weeks and is giving valuable advice along elementary lines in the different phases of junior and senior departments.

For the purpose of permitting as many as possible of the mothers to hear Dr. Kirby, the Woman's Club will hold Open House, and each member will be permitted to bring guests. Dr. Kirby has traveled extensively and Ellwood City is fortunate in securing him for any length of time.

He has been giving talks in the High school to the Junior and Senior departments, and his facts concerning education are presented so engagingly that, as one student put it, "you could hear a pin drop in assembly room." It is expected that a large number of women will avail themselves of the opportunity of learning straight from a noted educator's lips the activities of their children in the local schools.

Mrs. Gibbons Is Birthday Hostess

ELLWOOD CITY, Oct. 11.—Mrs. George Gibbons of Wurtemburg entertained at dinner Friday evening in honor of the birthday anniversary of her daughter-in-law, Mrs. Clifford Gibbons.

HIGHLIGHTS OF HISTORY

By J. Carroll Mansfield

18. Daniel Boone—Boone's Trace On The Wilderness Road

IN THE SPRING OF 1775, DANIEL BOONE, WITH A FEW DARING FOLLOWERS, SET OUT TO CUT A "TRACE" (A TRAIL) FROM THE WATAUGA SETTLEMENTS OF NORTH CAROLINA OVER THE APPALACHIANS TO THE FERTILE, WOODED BIG LEVELS OF KENTUCKY.

BOONE TRAVELED IN THE LEAD, PICKING THE BEST PATHWAY THROUGH THE TRACKLESS WILDS, MARKING THE TRAIL BY "BLAZES" ON THE TREE TRUNKS FOR HIS COMRADES WHO FOLLOWED MORE SLOWLY, CLEARING AWAY THE UNDERBRUSH AND FELLING TREES THAT OBSTRUCTED THE ROAD.

WEST OF CUMBERLAND GAP THE GOING WAS EASIER. HERE WERE TRAILS ALREADY MADE—PLAINLY MARKED BY THE MOCCASINED FEET OF MANY INDIAN HUNTERS AND THE HOOPS OF COUNTLESS BUFFALOES. WHEREVER PRACTICABLE BOONE MADE THESE TRAILS PART OF HIS PATH. (Copyright, 1930, by J. Carroll Mansfield)

BOONE'S TRACE WAS, FOR THE GREATER PART OF ITS LENGTH, MERELY A BRIDLE PATH. FOR A LONG TIME WAGONS COULD GO NO FURTHER THAN POWELL'S VALLEY NEAR CUMBERLAND GAP. DURING THE REVOLUTION AND FOR MANY YEARS AFTER BOONE'S ROAD WAS THE CHIEF LINK BETWEEN THE EAST AND THE MIDDLE WEST.

NEW CASTLE HIGH DEFEATS BELLEVUE, 21-0

THOMAS AND LASKY STAR AS LOCALS WIN

Coach Phil Bridenbaugh Presents Visitors With Revised Lineup; Thomas Scores Two Touchdowns And Lasky One As Locals Win Fourth Contest Of 1930 Season; Bellevue Proves Fighting Team But Is Outclassed By Local Gridders; About 5,000 Fans See Interesting Tilt At Taggart Field Friday Night. Nick Uram Looks Impressive, Making Several Nice Gains.

Outclassing its opponent the New Castle High School football team easily came through victorious in the fourth game of the season when the local red and black jerseyed warriors defeated a fighting Bellevue High eleven at Taggart Field on Friday night before 6,000 spectators. The final score favored New Castle 21-0.

"Dick" Thomas at fullback and Andy Lasky at halfback were outstanding for the New Castle combination. Aside from figuring in a number of runs and tackles these two gridders scored the touchdowns. Lasky scored his only six pointer in the first quarter while Thomas plunged over the visitors goal line in two instances, in the first quarter and in the closing minutes of play.

Lineup is Revised.

Fans on Friday night saw several changes in the New Castle lineup. Hileman, Askounes and Captain Regis McAuley failed to see action in the victory last night. Ciccone played at end instead of Hileman. Mike was shifted to right tackle in Askounes place and Nick Uram played at quarterback in place of Captain McAuley. Janovick started the game at left guard. Many believe that had the remainder of the first string team been in the contest the score would have been much larger.

Hardly had the contest gotten under way when Andy Lasky, south side flash, had crossed the visitors line for the first touchdown of the game. Bellevue received a bad break right at the kickoff. Birch had a bad kick which resulted in Jamison acquiring the ball for New Castle on the 50-yard line. Uram started the rush down the field by making 18 yards around left end. Lasky followed by gaining 15 yards, fumbling and recovering to place the pusk in scoring position. A series of line plunges by Dick Thomas brought the ball to the 4-yard line where Andy Lasky hit right end for the first touchdown. The local annexed the extra point when Lasky hit the line. The second touchdown scored by the locals was registered in this quarter also. After Sigel kicked for Bellevue, their failing to make any headway, New Castle made a steady march down the field and as a result Dick Thomas on two line plunges carried the ball over from the one-inch line after being held on the inch line once.

Thomas carried the ball through the line for the extra point. The local eleven failed to score in the second quarter. New Castle came close to scoring in the second quarter only to lose the ball from the 3-yard line when Thomas fumbled going through the line. After Uram made 21 yards through left end and Lasky brought the ball to the 3-yard line, Thomas attempted to carry the ball over the opponents goal line out somehow the ball fell out of his mitts as a Bellevue man fell on the ball which rolled over the goal line. This gave Bellevue the ball on the 20-yard line. Many fans believed that the play gave New Castle a touchback. Had a New Castle man recovered the ball behind the line after a Bellevue man had touched it, New Castle would have scored a touchdown. As a result Bellevue received the ball.

This was the closest either team came to scoring until the closing minutes of play when New Castle finally scored its third and final tally of the game in the fourth quarter.

MAYBE IT'S NOT THE CLUB

BY RUBE GOLDBERG

Bellevue Tries Hard But Proves Easy Foe For New Castle High

As an evening's entertainment, the football game between New Castle high school and Bellevue Friday night on Taggart field would scale somewhere between a perusal of the Congressional Record and a magic lantern show. Not even a football fan who takes his sport in habit-forming quantities could find anything to work up a cheer over, and the only redeeming feature of it all was that the second and third string men got a chance to dirty their uniforms.

The score was 21-0, but it might just as easily been greater if the first string team had been used. Even at that the subs threw two perfectly good touchdowns out the window when in the 20-yard zone they accommodately fumbled with a Bellevue griddler falling on the ball.

Parade of Subs.
From the middle of the first period until the whistle called it all off, there was a path worn from the bench to the gridiron by aspiring youths who in a year or so may be crashing the headlines in a big way. Two of them showed some stuff that will come in handy later, Rowe and Turk, with a number of others giving evidence of having some stuff.

There isn't much fun in sitting up in the stand and seeing your team defeat a club that never had a chance. Bellevue had as much chance to win that game last night as William Randolph Hearst has of being elected president of France, which you will agree is slightly less than no chance at all.

Bellevue had a good club—for Bellevue—but they have no license fooling around with the big boys, at least not this year. They have sent clubs to New Castle that were better, but this year's aggregation is not the type. At times they seemed to flash out with a little football and then just as stubbornly revert to type.

A lady visitor in the press box, who was seeing her first game of American football, summed it up beautifully when she said: "It looks to me as though one team was a polished organization, while the other team is green." The lady was right, for Bellevue had a green team, willing and all that sort of thing, and at times too willing to twist an ankle that laid handy, or brush an elbow casually into some lad's face.

There was one other feature characterizing the game Friday night that seems to be getting a trifle too frequent, and that was the ability of the officials to see New Castle's offside play and miss the opponents. This is no alibi for New Castle's numerous penalties. When they were penalized for being offside they were offside, and customers, the officials never missed. However, there were some instances, particularly in the fourth period, when the whole Bellevue line was offside and no penalty called. No hard feelings, y'understand, just a friendly word that New Castle would like to get an even break in the matter.

To Many Penalties.
New Castle draws far too many penalties. These may come from over-eagerness upon the part of the players to be in there, and perhaps it is a good fault, but there will be games when a generous helping of five and 15-yard penalties is going to cost the game.

Bridenbaugh's strategy Friday night was to save his regulars for the fray next Friday evening, and from the reports filtering in from Ohio all the first string men will need to be in first class shape. Woodward high of Toledo has a couple of tackles, who scale at 220, each of them, not a combined weight, and a pair of good tackles can cause plenty of grief for the opposition.

The crowd numbered about 6,000 counting the youngsters in the north bleachers. The night was perfect, the turf was fast, and this lad Lasky made the most of his chances to run. The boy picks up his feet in a way that encourages you to believe that next season he will be a sweet ball totter, while Dick Thomas, the fullback who has been improving with every game, accounted for two touchdowns. He has a souvenir of the game in the form of a delicately tinted eye, with the color harmonies ranging from light blue to dark purple. You can imagine his embarrassment.

Looking at the game from the spectator's standpoint, it is probably the last game of the season which will be listless. Starting next Friday night the schedule looks like a junior Notre Dame, with such tough hordes as Woodward of Toledo, Washington, Rochester, Turtle Creek South and Rayen of Youngstown. That's tough enough to satisfy a top sergeant and from now on you can expect your money's worth.

Gridiron Gossip

This afternoon at 2:30 o'clock the Westminster Titans and Allegheny Alligators do a little battling. It is the annual grid game between the two schools. Other games have been hard fought and this one looks like a titanic struggle, with both teams highly confident of victory. Coaches Beede and Crum have worked hard this week to perfect their machines.

The Pitt Panthers and Western Reserve are tearing at each other today at Dunn Field, Cleveland, O. The Panthers are the favorites of course. The Lake City boys would like to make a good showing against their major opponents, but that is all they hope to do. Coach Jock Sutherland will fall upon his string of reserves to win this game, saving the regulars for the Syracuse battle next week.

Geneve and Thiel are playing this afternoon at Greenville and it is my guess that the Covenanters are having a tough time of it. This Thiel team is nobody's setup this year, and this fact is attested to by their showing against Temple and Carnegie Tech and neither of the big schools did very much scoring. There won't be six points difference in the score.

W. and J. is out in Ohio this afternoon doing a little wild running at the expense of Wittenberg College, the game is being played at Springfield, Ohio. Coach Amos is not very much worried about this game, and will no doubt give the second-string men a lot of work today.

The Carnegie Tech coaches have been working all week to perfect a quick-scoring play, that can be used this afternoon against the Golden Horde from Georgia Tech.

Grove City College football team kept their slate clean for the season to date on Friday night; at Cleveland, when they dusted off the Joins-Carroll team 6 to 0, in what may have been a good ball game. Alexander, former New Castle boy, started in the backfield for the Groves. Tommy Shupe scored for Grove City, after putting the ball on the five-yard line by a 50-yard forward pass from Freddy Pusch. The Clevelanders never threatened the Grove City goal line.

The Duquesne "Dukes", rode into the mid-west last night and came back to Pittsburgh with a 7 to 6 victory over Loyola of Chicago. The game was played by candle-light in Chicago. It was a rip snorting battle from start to finish, with both teams about evenly matched. Sullivan tallied for the Layden coached team, and Kovalechek added the extra-point by a placement kick, to give the Pittsburghers a win.

HERE AND THERE IN SPORTS' LAND

Deacon Litz and Billy Arnold have ideal weather for their match race at Altoona today. Arnold won the abbreviated Labor Day contest. Litz said that had the event not been cut short he would have won. Sensational statements brought forth a reply from Arnolds that he would meet Litz again hence today's auto contest which will be witnessed by some local fans.

Jack Berg of Great Britain erased Billy Petrolle from his path in a 10-round bout at New York last night. When Berg first came to the United States Petrolle scored twice, one bout ending in a technical knockout. The Englishman is one of the best lightweight in recent years from Britain.

Larry Madge won from Jimmy Belmont and Jimmy Reed won from Johnny Smackey in 10 round battles at Pittsburgh. Belmont was floored twice, once in the fourth and again in the ninth. Madge hit the floor in the third. Reed outsmarted Smackey throughout.

Tom Heeney of Australia will return to this section Monday night when he meets Emmett Rocco the Tarzan of the Connoquenessing. Heeney fought George Panka recently and Rocco lost to Tufty Grif. Rocco should do much better against Heeney than he did against Tufty. They box at Pittsburgh.

Grove City College journeyed to Cleveland yesterday and carved a six to nothing victory over John Carroll's fighting eleven. The lone touchdown was turned in during the third quarter after a 55 yard gain on a forward pass from Shippe to Pirch had put the ball on the Carroll five yard line.

Duquesne Fumbles In First Quarter As Washington Recovers And Scores

Washington High school football which meets New Castle at Washington on October 25 had a hard time defeating Duquesne High on Friday. After Duquesne had fumbled near the goal line, Washington recovered and scored to win the contest 7-0.

Washington is picked by many to cop the W. P. I. A. L. crown. One of the best scholastic games in Western Pennsylvania is anticipated when New Castle and Washington meet in what is believed to be the championship game for the league honors. Clairton High last year champs were held to a 0-0 score by a light but fast North Braddock eleven on Friday.

FROM TEE TO GREEN

By ROY GROVE
Central Press Golf Writer

The beginner in golf finds the mid-iron the easiest club in the bag to use when starting out, but soon learns it is the toughest stick to handle.

Al Watrous can handle the mid-iron with greater accuracy and ease than any of the professionals I have ever seen.

His style is smooth, and can be attributed to the finish of the stroke which is well under the chin and on which is out through the ball—hitting straight towards the hole.

In addressing the ball the shoulders are on virtually the same level. That stance evenly distributes the action of the arms and that action also controls the hip's movement.

There is a tendency for the golfer who is out of the duffer class to try to exert himself in playing the mid-iron for his second shot. He tries to get 200 yards out of the iron at every shot, where previously he was content with hitting the ball and getting good results.

It is always disastrous to use the mid-iron off the tee when losing confidence in the driver. Use the spoon or the brassie. The mid-iron is a club for the turf and should be punched smartly into the ground underneath and through the ball. If the golfer hits otherwise he is developing what is known as a "push" shot, and this is hard to control. Such a shot has a long run at the end. The good iron shot stops a few feet on the screen, and should be long and accurate.

Temple Beats Bucknell 7-6

(International News Service)
PHILADELPHIA, Oct. 11.—Although outplayed consistently throughout the game Temple University's husky football eleven today boasted of a lone-point victory over the thundering herd of Bucknell's gridiron warriors. The 7-6 victory was scored in a game here last night in Temple's stadium before a howling capacity house of 32,000. The score: Temple 0 7 0 0—7; Bucknell 0 6 0 0—6.

Mixup Over Her Custody Ended

Several of the country's leading lawyers had drawn up for battle in Superior Court, Providence, R. I., to decide the custody of the gold-plated child, Christine Cromwell. Christine's two wealthy grandmothers, Mrs. Hugh Dillman (the former Mrs. Horace Dodge) and Mrs. Edward T. Stotesbury, settled the case before court opened. The child is pictured above with her mother, in whose custody she is at present, and James H. R. Cromwell, her father. (International Newsreel)

New Mineral Industries Building for State College

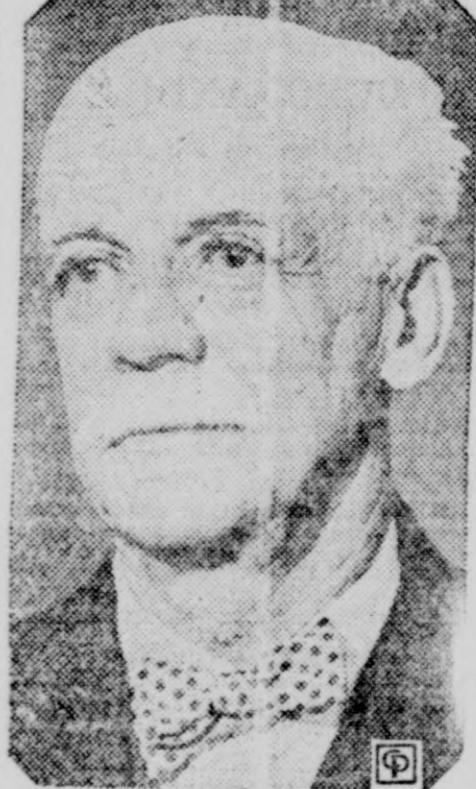

Mineral industries of Pennsylvania, which account for about two-thirds of the productive wealth of the State, have expressed pride in this new home for the School of Mineral Industries at Pennsylvania State College. The four story structure of rose brick and white stone trim affords the School its first home at State College that is in keeping with the great industrial group it represents and serves through instruction, research and extension. The building was opened when college started September 24 and will be one of the twelve new structures completed in the past three years at State College. All will be open for inspection when the college observes its 75th Anniversary of Founding, October 23-25. This structure will be dedicated next spring at a proposed Mineral Industries Congress.

Pennsylvania Grange Dormitory Gift to State College

This magnificent home for women students of the Pennsylvania State College is one of twelve new structures to be centers of attraction when the college celebrates the 75th anniversary of its founding on October 23, 24 and 25. The structure is the result of a desire on the part of the Pennsylvania State Grange to show appreciation of State College service to Pennsylvania farmers. For the same reason potato growers of the State assisted with erection of a hospital for students, and twenty other agricultural groups helped build Frear Hall, dormitory for men.

You're the JUDGE

THE DECISION

The court held with the Hinks company.

The judges reasoned thus: Desisting from pressing a law suit when it might be pressed to sufficient consideration to support a promise. The agreement, therefore, was valid and the stove works could hold the customer to it.

The great advantage of peace is that you can pick out your own countries to love.

Why expect our great minds to overcome wet spots when they can't even cure bald spots.

Spying On Sports

By WILLIAM RITT

Central Press Sports Editor

News that old Jess Willard, whose ponderous frame once blanketed the world heavyweight throne, has invested some of his capital in still another enterprise, is additional proof that of all types of athletes your fighting man is the most restless after his days as a sport headliner are over.

Reference is to headliners and not the bums who usually wind up doing odd jobs and lots of them for little cash.

In the whole list of heavyweight champions I'd like for you to find me one who has gone in for a certain line of work after his fight days are over and stuck to it.

Jim Corbett has appeared as actor many times and also as a writer of sporting news. That doesn't mean that Jim hasn't been a success at both because he has and is.

Jim Jeffries is running a ranch somewhere in California and has also dabbled in managing fighters. Al Morro is his latest bet.

Then there is Jack Johnson. Jack has worked at many jobs, only recently appearing in the role of a band leader and a few months later as a fight manager.

Jack Dempsey has been a hotel operator, a promoter, a fight referee and so on. Gene Tunney hasn't done anything to my knowledge, since he vacated the title in 1928. Maybe he can't make up his mind.

Of the whole Jess takes the prize. He has been a circus entertainer, a real estate operator, an oil man and now—a food shop proprietor.

And that goes for the former heavyweight champion goes for a vast majority of fighters.

It is not that the ring renders a man capable for other employ-

NEW YORK STOCKS

Market Irregular At Close Of Week

By W. S. COUSINS
International News Service Financial Editor

NEW YORK, Oct. 11.—While further rallies took place today in many of the favorite industrial and utility stocks which bore the brunt of the selling this week, the market, in the short week-end session was irregular, with prices swinging in a narrow range in both sections.

United States Steel spurred to 151 in the first period, in an effort to lead the way to higher prices, but heavy week-end selling, with profit-taking thrown in, blocked the rally in the market as a whole. Renewal of selling pressure against Fox Film, Loews, Bethlehem Steel, Vanadium, Westinghouse and other speculative favorites in the second hour turned the general tide of prices downward, and losses from the early peaks ranged all the way from 1 to 4 1/2 points.

Quitting down of the speculative trading as the session advanced suggested the drying up of the forced liquidation that has been carrying the market steadily downward. Buying demand, either from investors or speculators, was not very brisk. The week-end trade reviews were more cheerful in what they promised than in their reports of actual accomplishments. Grain and cotton markets were slightly reactionary.

Loews was again under pressure and sold off 3 1/2 points at 55. DuPont retreated 5 points to 99. Bethlehem Steel dropped to a new low for the year at 73 1/2, down 2 1/2. Hahn department stores preferred lost 10 points.

The active Railroad and Utility stocks lost about half of the ground gained in Friday's late rally. Consolidated Gas sold in good volume at 97 1/2, down 3 points. Westinghouse was down 3 at 113 1/4; General Electric down 2 at 56 1/2; United Corporation down a point; Atchafalaya down 2 at 20 1/2 and New York Central down 4 points at 141.

Professional buying and selling was retarded by the forthcoming holiday on Monday. Further losses were recorded in the Foreign government bonds and Speculative American issues which have been on the toboggan in the last two weeks, and Wheat prices near the noon hour showed a loss of 1 1/2 cents a bushel, with Corn down 2 1/2 cents a bushel.

VISITORS HERE

Mrs. Robert McAnlis and Mrs. Ira McAnlis of Main street had for their guests Thursday Mrs. Harry Rees of Akron, O., and Mrs. Norman Bodier of Swansea, Wales, who is the house guest of Mrs. Rees, and Mrs. Quigley and Mrs. William Harward of New Castle.

ENTERTAINS

Mrs. Inez Mae Fenton entertained her church school class at the parsonage Thursday evening, being its regular business and social meeting of the month. The class adopted as its name "The Loyal Daughters". The decorations were in keeping with the Halloween spirit, with a profusion of fall flowers. After the business was transacted an interesting social hour was enjoyed and a fine lunch was served by the hostess, assisted by Olive Davis and LaGene Snare.

RETURNS HOME

W. A. Brown, sealer of weights and measures, has returned home from Pittsburgh, where he attended the convention of weights and measures this week.

TAKEN TO HOSPITAL

Mrs. John Galbreath was taken to Grove City hospital and was operated on Wednesday. Mrs. Galbreath has been quite ill for several months and her condition was gradually getting worse and an operation was necessary for her improvement.

Mrs. Galbreath's friends hope for a speedy recovery and her health restored.

HOME FROM HOSPITAL

John Belber, who was in the New Castle hospital and had his tonsils removed, was able to return home today feeling slightly improved.

SERIOUSLY ILL

Friends of Mrs. James Allen of New Castle, a former resident of Wampum, will be sorry to learn that she is seriously ill in the James Memorial hospital. Her many friends hope for a speedy recovery.

SURPRISE

Mrs. George Herbert was tendered a surprise this week when the following named teachers from the north side schools at Ellwood motored here, bringing with them a dainty lunch, and spent a very pleasant time.

The guests were Jessie McDougall, Estella Marshall, Mary Shields, Iva Howell, Belle Vangorder, Dorothy Quayle, Martha Mayne, Grace Anderson, Josephine Hartzell, Ella Wilson and Harriet Bartow.

At a seasonable hour a large cake was placed on the table and Jessie McDougall and Estella Marshall were hostesses to the guests in serving a delicious lunch.

Mrs. Herbert before her marriage recently was a teacher in the north side school also.

Services in the local churches here Sunday are as follows:

Presbyterian: Sunday school at 9:45 a. m.; communion and service 11 a. m. Theme, "The Unforgettable Christ". Christian Endeavor at 6:30 p. m. Service 7:30 p. m. Theme, "Saved to Serve. Rev. J. G

Police Pension Fund Provided By Ordinance

Measure Is Introduced At Council Meeting Friday By Council Treser

SENT TO COMMITTEE FOR CONSIDERATION

Members Of Department And City Shall Share Costs Of Maintenance

Councilman Stanley Treser at a formal meeting of city council in the municipal building Friday introduced an ordinance which establishes a police pension fund. The measure, drafted by Solicitor Robt. White, provides for its administration, management, regulation and control. The bill was sent to committee for consideration when all councilmen are present.

The measure provides pensions an administrative bureau which can establish and pay directly or pay by insurance. It is a measure that provides authority but yet has limitations. The bureau would be composed of the mayor, councilmen, chief of police and two police officers to be selected by council upon recommendation of the whole police force of the city. He also describes how the money is to be secured.

Section one says "Be it ordained and enacted by the council of New Castle that there is hereby established and ordained by the city a fund to be known as the Police Pension fund and to be maintained by an equal and proportionate monthly charge against each member of the Police force which shall not exceed annually three per centum of the pay of each police officer. The fund, according to section two provides for a Police Pension fund bureau.

Adopt Own Rules
The members of the bureau shall serve during their term of office and be succeeded by their successors in office. The two members of the bureau appointed by council upon the police recommendation shall serve during good behavior or until they voluntarily withdraw or are removed by council, manic resolution which shall not be effective unless affirmed by a 4 to 1 vote, one of whom must be the mayor.

The bureau shall meet and organize as soon as possible after the effective date of the ordinance and shall then adopt rules and regulations as the members shall see fit for the administration, management, application, control, disposition and distribution of the fund; provided, however, that the said fund shall at all times be under the absolute and direct control of the council and rules and regulations of the bureau shall conform to the ordinance.

The fund shall be applied under regulations only for the benefit of such members of the Police force as shall receive honorable discharge therefrom by reason of age or disability and the families of such as may be injured or killed in the service; and any allowances that shall be made to those who are retired from the force by reason of the disabilities of age shall be in conformity with a uniform scale.

The bureau may prescribe a minimum of continuous service, not less than twenty years, after which members may be retired from active duty, or, it may prescribe for a uniform system of pensions to all members of the force, but in that event the amount of pension to be received shall be according to a uniform scale based upon the number of years of service of each officer.

Carried On Reserves
Any member of the force who shall be retired under the provisions of the ordinance, rules and regulations of the bureau shall be subject to service from time to time as a police reserve until such time as in the opinion of the council he shall be unfit for such service, when he may be finally discharged by reason of age or disability.

It is provided that no payments are to be made under the provisions of the ordinance, or any rule or regulation of the bureau shall be a charge on any other fund in the treasury of the city or upon any fund under its control, except the Police Pension fund herein provided for.

Section 8 says that the basis of the apportionment of the pension granted shall be determined by the rate of monthly pay of such member at the date of his death, honorable discharge or retirement; or shall be determined by the total amount of pay which he has received for his whole service to the city; or shall be determined by a combination of the rate of his pay at time of death, honorable discharge or retirement with the total amount of pay received by him during his service.

Pension Uniform
The section also provides however, that such basis of determination of the amount of pension to be received shall be uniform and shall apply to all officers alike. No pension shall ever be granted to any member of the force which shall exceed in any year one half of the annual pay which he received during the year immediately preceding his honorable discharge or retirement.

The ordinance provides in section 9 that it shall be competent for the bureau on behalf of the city to take by gift, grant, devise or bequest any money or property, real, personal or mixed, in trust for the benefit of the fund; and the care, management, investment and custody of such trust funds or property shall be vested in the city treasury. The treasurer shall invest all such trust funds in United States government bonds, Commonwealth of Pennsylvania bonds, bonds of any municipality or municipal division or the commonwealth, certificates of indebtedness for public improvements issued by the city of New Castle or in the bonds of any other municipality which shall be approved by the bureau.

It is provided, however, that if the donor of any such trust funds shall stipulate particularly how the same shall be invested, maintained and controlled, such stipulation of the donor shall supersede the requirements of this section as to that donation only.

Provide Exceptions
The ordinance further provides that whenever any person shall become entitled to receive a benefit from the fund, and shall have been admitted to participate therein, he shall not be deprived of his right to an equal and proportionate participation therein upon the basis upon which he first became entitled thereto, save from one or more of the following causes:

That is to say, conviction of a crime or misdemeanor, becoming a habitual drunkard, becoming a non-resident of the state, or failing to comply with regulation relating to the management of the fund which may be made by ordinance and which may be provided that a failure to comply therewith shall terminate the right to participate in the fund after such due notice and hearing shall be prescribed by ordinance.

Section 11 says there shall be paid annually to the fund, a sum of money not exceeding one per centum of all city taxes collected by the city other than taxes levied to pay interest on or to extinguish the debt of the municipality or any part thereof.

Section 12 says the city treasurer shall be custodian of the fund; that the bureau may set aside as a part of the trust funds of the said pension fund any part of the moneys which shall come into the said police pension fund, and any money so held in trust by the city treasurer may never be used or expended, except by unanimous vote of the bureau, upon petition of 75 per centum of the police officers, active and returned of the city.

It also provides that the bureau may, however, pay out and expend in pensions or for premiums for insurance any or all money paid into the police pension fund by the city annually in accordance with the provisions of section 11, and any and all moneys received by the city treasurer as income from the trust fund in the police pension fund.

City Pays $5,000 Yearly

Section 13 provides the city shall pay to the city treasurer in the year 1931, the sum of $5,000 and a like sum each year thereafter until all of the money heretofore appropriated for police pensions in accordance with the provisions of an ordinance, entitled "An ordinance creating a pension fund for the payment of old age pensions to policemen and firemen providing for the maintenance of the fund; and for determining who are entitled thereto; and its disbursement and payment," passed December 2, 1922, amounting on the first of January 1931 to about $22,000 shall have been fully paid to the police pension fund treasurer, and all of the money to be paid in accordance with this section may be used by the bureau to buy paid-up annuities for the police officers on the basis of their past service at the time of the passage of this ordinance or may be used by the bureau to set up a trust fund as provided for.

The bureau may provide for the payment of pensions out of the income which it shall receive from trust funds and from the city; or it may provide for a system of pensions or annuities to be secured by a policeman of group insurance approved by the department of banking of the commonwealth and entitled to do business in Pennsylvania; and the premium for which shall be paid out of the income from the trust funds of the pension fund and from moneys paid to it by the city of New Castle.

Provide Annuities
The ordinance further provides that the bureau may procure insurance or annuities as provided for certain members of the police and provide for the pension payments out of the income of the pension fund to those police officers who now on the force and who because of age, are not insurable; provided, however, that no pension shall be paid by the bureau to any officer under the provisions of this section (15) in a greater amount than $150 per month for each year of his service at time of retirement.

If at any time after the passage of this ordinance any policeman who is past the age of 65, and no longer able to perform his duties, in the opinion of council, the council may by resolution require him to retire and the pension fund bureau shall pay to him out of the income of the fund a monthly pension of $150 for each year of continuous service by him on the force immediately preceding his retirement and such shall be paid until death.

This ordinance repeals an ordinance entitled "An ordinance creating a pension fund for the payment of old age pensions to policemen and firemen" passed December 12, 1922, insofar as it relates to pensions and police officers, except that all appropriations and payments made by or changed to the city by virtue of the said ordinance shall remain in full force and effect.

This ordinance is made in accordance with an act of assembly passed May 24, 1893; act passed April 21, 1921 and recognizes the police pension fund and the bureau created as the only fund, bureau, organization or association containing and having in charge the distribution of Police pension funds in New Castle and all other ordinances and resolutions of the city relating to police pensions are inconsistent hereto and hereby repealed.

Some News, Some Views, But Mostly Just Observations Of Interesting Things Around New Castle

Sometimes it takes an entire stranger to bring you to a realization of some of the advantages of your own city. A visitor from another land can sometimes give you a viewpoint on your own, that is refreshing.

An interesting visitor from across the big pond was in yesterday and her reactions to our schools, our public institutions and our sports was most interesting. The lady was an avid observer, compared things here with things in her own country, and at the end of the day declared that she has seen some interesting sights.

She was most interested in our schools for it seems that education in Wales, her own country is a matter of competition after a youngster is twelve years of age. Over here it is compulsory. The fact that a boy and a girl goes into high school as a matter of routine and that the education was paid for by taxes was so entirely different from things over there that she paid close attention to our system.

American football was a sport she had never seen and last night she was a press box guest at Tazart Stadium. Not only had she never seen an American football game but she had never seen any sport played by electric light outdoors. The game is patterned somewhat after her own country's game of Rugby, but little remains of it in the American game.

Mrs. Govier for this is who it was, is visiting America for the first time, and after getting her reactions it seemed to me that every country ought to send its public officials to other countries to see what the folks are doing.

You can't hate people you know and when the nations of the world really get acquainted its going to be much harder for a couple of kings to get together and start a war.

The International art exhibit starts in Pittsburgh in a few days, but if you want to see art that no human can reproduce, take a ride out along Ellwood Road. Up near Ellwood that simply shriek their colors to the world. Reds that are so vivid they look like a fire, and yellows that nearly dazzle you.

The whole highway is lined with autumn tints, but this one clump about a mile and a half side of Ellwood is the last word in colors.

All the folks who were ever exposed to education at Westminster College are hiking back today. It's Homecoming Day, and the opposing team is Allegheny. Regardless of what the result is, the old grads will have a time.

Highest Possible Rating Is Given College Yearbook

Westminster College Argo Is Given 940 Out Of Possible 1000 Points

(Special To The News)
NEW WILMINGTON, Pa., Oct. 11.—All American rating, the highest Westminster Argo, junior class yearbook, by the National Scholastic Press Association at the University of Minnesota.

The 1930 Argo, edited by Kenneth Baird, Butler, Pa., and Ada Miller, New Castle, was given 940 points out of a possible 1000. It was the only college yearbook in the state to win highest honors, and is the third Westminster annual in three years to win first prize.

A narrow cover trimmed with copper-bronze, an Indian theme with red, black and yellow predominating in the color scheme, and a book replete with photographs of every phase of college life and activity, the 1930 Argo won the praise of the judges at Minneapolis.

The athletic section, with action shots of all teams and players, and the opening sections of the book won the highest commendations. James McQuiston edited the first book, the 1928 Argo, to win All-American rating. In 1929, Ed Grodzinger edited the Argo which again won All-American rating. In three years the Westminster yearbook has won 940 points or more out of the perfect 1000.

Approximately 5,000 books were judged at the annual contest at Minneapolis. The 1930 Argo was placed on exhibition in the school of journalism at the University of Minnesota following the contest.

ROTOGRAM

"One common mistake in the practice of friendship is the notion that friends must be ideal and such as shall meet our approval in every particular. We never find people like that. Everyone has his limitations as we have ourselves, and unless we can take people as they are and like them as they are, including all the ways in which they differ from us, our life will be barren of friendships."—Rotarian W.
